A PREFACE usually both disappoints and aggravates—it says nothing, with a deal of words; and it holds the hungry reader from the feast before his eyes. But a cook-book's should more kindly speed on rather than hinder from that crowning banquet of literature. Yes, crowning: for is it not the essence of all things good? And does it not contain the very proven-der which goes to the making of all other books, and without which even our brains would evaporate? Epitome it is, too, of man's deep excogitations and indeed of life itself. Here you have mathematics, science, the philosopher's "cause and effect," the "high seriousness" of all great poetry—are not our cream-puffs soulful poems—the wit's spice and tartness, the artist's daintiest device, the arguments of state which make and unmake crowns. Nay, only look deeper, and find in that microcosm the kitchen, besides the object lessons which it fabricates, other most nutritious lessons of the Greek's golden moderation and other moralities. But of all to be learned there or to issue thence the preface cannot give you a first course or even a taste. That is not its part. It can only ask you to partake. It is like a lady who at evening welcomes her guests. Much agony hath gone to the morning's work: and sundry costly viands too—else had not her art triumphed. Yet of all this not a hint in her voice or mien as she smilingly:

“Madam, the dinner is served.”

“Ah, well then, ladies and gentlemen—

‘Now, good digestion wait on appetite

And health on both.’”

“ To be a good cook means the knowledge of all fruits, herbs, balms and spices, and of all that is healing and meet in fields and grove, savory in meat. It means carefulness, inventiveness, watchfulness, willingness and readiness of appliance. It means the economy of your great-grandmother and the science of modern chemists; it means much tasting and no wasting; it means English thoroughness, French art and Arabian hospitality; it means in fine that you are to be perfectly and always ladies, and you are to see that everybody has something nice to eat.”—RUSKIN.

L'ENVOI—TABLE TALK

For a Dinner Party of Thirteen.

(When making put in a thirteenth line according to taste.)

For soup, of books we'll have a rich extract.

Fish, sallies caught from fancy's sparkling stream:
And oysters, our young folk in love, with tact

For sauce to both. In fitting time 'twill seem Mete we partake of dish of sage discourse.

A salad of crisp shoots of gossip-vine
With charity's oil and just a dash (no worse)

Of malice. But each guest must bring the wine
Of his own wit. Judgments of frozen sense

On things of church and state shall be dessert,
While sweets the gracious hostess must dispense.

Alas, too soon from feast to crusts we shall revert!

SOUPS

"For Soup is but the first of those delights which go to make the coming bill of fare."

Bouillon

Will Serve Five Persons.

- | | | | |
|----------------|-------------------------|---------------|--------------------------|
| 1 | tablespoonful of butter | $\frac{1}{2}$ | of an onion, sliced |
| $1\frac{1}{2}$ | pounds of finely chop- | 1 | stalk of celery |
| | ped beef (from the | 3 | or 4 cloves |
| | round) | 2 | slices of carrot |
| 1 | bay leaf | 2 | sprigs of parsley |
| | | | Shell and white of 1 egg |

Melt the butter in a granite saucepan, add the onion and cook until thoroughly brown, when add the beef, celery, cloves, carrot, bay leaf and parsley and one quart of cold water. Cover the saucepan and stand on the back of the stove where it will heat slowly. Let it simmer gently for three hours; strain, return to the kettle and bring to a boil. Beat the white of an egg with one-half cup of cold water until thoroughly mixed. Crush the shell and add it to the egg; add this to the boiling bouillon. Boil four minutes, stand on the back of the stove one minute to settle, and strain through cheese cloth. Be sure to wring out the cloth from cold water before straining.

Brown Soup Stock

Will Serve Eight or Ten Persons.

4 pounds hind shin of beef	4 quarts cold water
8 whole cloves	8 whole peppercorns
4 teaspoonfuls mixed sweet herbs	1 tablespoonful salt
1 small carrot	3 large onions
	2 stalks celery
	2 sprigs parsley

Wipe and cut the meat and bones in small pieces. Put the marrow, bones, half of the meat and the cold water into the kettle. Soak half an hour before heating. Add spices and herbs. Brown the onions and the remainder of the meat and add them to stock. Add the vegetables cut fine, simmer eight or ten hours and strain. When cold, take off the grease; it may be necessary to wring a cloth out of hot water and wipe off the stock—not a pinhead must be left. To clear it, allow the white and shell of one egg to every quart of soup, adding the egg when the soup is perfectly cold. Beat them well together, then set on the stove, stirring until hot. Let it boil ten minutes without stirring. Draw it back on the stove and add half a cup of cold water. Let it stand ten minutes. Wring a napkin out of hot water and lay it on the colander. Put the finest wire strainer on the napkin and pour the soup through, letting it take its own time to drain. When ready to serve, heat to the boiling point. You may serve with it in the tureen, thin slices of lemon, glass of sherry, or yolks of hard-boiled eggs, sliced.

MRS. C. E. SHEPARD.

Spice Soup

Boil a large bone all day, and see that your stock measures when strained four quarts. Add 2 cups tomatoes, 1 teaspoonful cloves, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful each of mace, cinnamon and allspice, pepper and salt to taste, grated peel and juice of 1 lemon, 1 teacup browned

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.
(From Webfoot Cook Book.)

Veal Soup (Excellent)

Put a knuckle of veal into three quarts of cold water, with a small quantity of salt, and one small tablespoonful of uncooked rice. Boil slowly, hardly above simmering, four hours, when the liquor should be reduced to half the quantity; remove from the fire. Into the tureen put the beaten egg and stir well into it a teacupful of cream or, in hot weather, new milk; add a piece of butter the size of a hickory nut; on this strain the soup, boiling hot, stirring all the time. Just at the last, beat it well for a minute.

MRS. ALBERT T. TIMMERMAN.
(From White House Cook Book.)

Then cream the butter and flour together, add this, the seasoning and the catsup, and cook for five minutes longer. Put the milk into the double boiler.

HORSESHOE Soap will not draw your hands.

Put the soup into a colander, rubbing through as much as possible. Rinse out the kettle, return the soup to it, add the boiling milk, taste for seasoning, add sherry, more or less, as you like it, and serve immediately.

soup; simmer for an hour; skim carefully, strain and return the soup to the kettle. Separate the meat as much as possible from the vegetables, cut in dice and return to the soup with mucilage and green fat (diced), which was laid aside in the beginning. Season with salt and pepper; boil up; add two hard-boiled eggs, chopped fine, three tablespoonfuls sherry and serve with thin slices of lemon cut in points. Do not boil after adding the eggs. Water may be used instead of stock.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Will serve Six or Eight Persons.

1 quart tomatoes	3 soda crackers
1 quart sweet milk	$\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful soda
1 tablespoonful butter	Pepper and salt

Roll the crackers very fine; boil the tomatoes until thoroughly done (in using fresh tomatoes it is well to put on a little more than a quart, as they boil down), put through a strainer and return to the kettle to come to a boil again. Bring the milk to a boil, being careful not to burn it. Add to the tomatoes the crackers and soda, stir well to make smooth; then pour into the boiling milk, boil up once as quickly as possible, stirring constantly; put on a cooler part of the stove and add the seasoning. Pour into the tureen in which you have put the piece of butter. Be sure the tomatoes and milk are both boiling when you mix them. This may be made in the morning and reheated for dinner in a double boiler.

FISH

“An oyster may be crossed in love.”—Sheridan.

The following general rules for fish will hold good for all kinds.

Selection of Fish

Great care should be taken to preserve the freshness of fish, as no other food deteriorates so rapidly in flavor. Fresh fish should be firm and the skin and scales bright. When it does not look so, do not buy it, as it will only be a disappointment. Do not wash the fish until just before using. An old fish-dealer is our authority for the statement that slimy coating always found on fish is a great factor in preserving its freshness, therefore if the fish is to be kept some hours before using, scale, clean and scrape it well, sprinkle a little salt on the inside, and just before using wash once quickly in cold water. Do not let the fish stand in the water or the best flavor will be lost.

Boiled Fish

There are three ways of boiling fish. The length of time required for a fish weighing four or five pounds is thirty minutes. A fish weighing more than six pounds should cook five minutes longer for every two pounds additional.

HORSESHOE Soap will not shrink your flannels.

First Method—Pin the fish in a strong white cotton cloth, then plunge in kettle of boiling water and simmer gently for thirty minutes. Hard boiling breaks the fish.

Second Method—Lay the fish on a cloth or plate and place in steamer and simply steam until done, about the same length of time as for boiling.

Third Method—Put in a double boiler, or if one has not a double boiler large enough, put the fish in a lard pail and set in the large kettle of boiling water. The flavor of the fish is preserved best in the two latter methods.

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.

Baked Fish

1 fish weighing about 5 lbs 1 pint of bread crumbs
 Butter size of walnut $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful of pepper
 1 teaspoonful of salt

Scrape and wash the fish clean if not already prepared, then rub into it a tablespoonful of salt. Mix together the bread crumbs, butter and seasoning for the stuffing and moisten with cold water. Put this into the body of the fish and fasten with skener. Cut gashes across the fish about two inches apart, one-half inch deep and two or more inches long and into each put a strip of salt pork, dust over pepper and salt and sprinkle thickly with bread crumbs or flour, according to taste. Put into the roasting pan and bake one hour, basting frequently; the bottom of the pan should be covered with hot water when the fish is first put in. Serve with drawn butter sauce, or any of the fancy sauces suitable for fish.

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.

WEBB'S Ground Spices are perfectly pure.

Fried Fish

The best method for frying fish is to first prepare your fat by frying slices of salt pork a crisp brown, remove and place around the edge of your platter. Have your fish well covered or rolled in flour and Indian meal mixed and salted; then lay it in the frying pan and fry in the salt pork fat. Fry brown on one side, then turn and fry on the other. Be sure to have the fat smoking hot when the fish is put in and fry quickly. Serve very hot, garnished with the salt pork and parsley or lemon sliced.

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.

Broiled Fish

Always use a double broiler to facilitate turning the fish. Before using rub the broiler with butter or a piece of salt pork to prevent the fish from sticking. The size of the fish will have to be the guide to the length of time required in cooking; a fish weighing four pounds requiring twenty minutes to half an hour. In broiling, the inside of the fish should be put over the coals first. Great care is required not to burn the skin. Mackerel will cook in from twelve to twenty minutes. After the fish is removed to the platter it should be spread generously with lumps of butter.

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.

Smelts

Split the smelts down the back, take out the intestines and backbone; most of the side bones will come with it; wipe clean and salt the inside lightly. Roll in salted corn meal and fry quickly in very hot deep fat, or in butter. The fat must be very hot to brown quickly or the fish will become hard. Serve with tartare sauce.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

HORSESHOE Soap will not ruin your clothes.

Fish Turbot

Steam until tender a white-meated fish. When done, remove the bones, pick up very fine, and season with pepper and salt.

Dressing

1 pint of milk	1 tablespoonful of flour
A large lump of butter	1 or 2 eggs
Onion and parsley

Heat the milk, salt to taste, and thicken with the flour. When cool, add the butter (melted), eggs well beaten, and season with onion or parsley. Put in the baking dish a layer of fish, then a layer of sauce, until full; cover the top with bread crumbs, and bake half or three-quarters of an hour. Canned salmon, any cold boiled fish, or salt codfish freshened, can be prepared in the same way, and is very nice.

Fish Cream Cutlets

Chop, with a silver knife, 1 pound of uncooked halibut rather fine, add 1 teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of minced almonds, a drop or two of onion juice, a dash of cayenne and the unbeaten white of 1 egg. Mix well, and stir in $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of whipped cream. This cream must be stiff and fine. Put this mixture into small cutlet shaped moulds; stand them in a steamer and cook about ten minutes. Turn carefully from the moulds. Cover the bottom of the serving dish with cream sauce, arrange the cutlets, put a pretty sprig of double parsley in the "bone" end of each and serve very hot. Slightly and very good; quite new. By permission of

MRS. S. T. RORER and THE HOUSEHOLD NEWS CO.

Flaked Fish Steamed

1 cup of cold fish	2 cups of mashed potatoes
$\frac{1}{2}$ cup of cream or milk	2 tablespoonfuls of melted butter
2 hard boiled eggs
1 raw egg	1 teaspoonful lemon juice
1 teaspoonful of salt	$\frac{1}{2}$ saltspoonful of pepper
A dash of cayenne
1 tablespoonful of chopped parsley

Flake the fish carefully. To the hot mashed potato add the cream and melted butter, stir in the fish, then the hard boiled eggs chopped fine, followed by beaten egg and seasoning. Steam for one-half hour in buttered pudding mould. Serve with either cream or tomato sauce poured over it.

MRS. GEORGE H. HEILBRON.

Creamed Fish

Take any nice, firm fleshed fish. Boil and remove the bones. Chop 1 small onion and a little parsley very fine and mix in with the fish, adding salt and pepper. Put it in a deep dish and cover with bread crumbs about two inches deep. Put small lumps of butter over it and add a little nutmeg (if you like it), and pour sweet cream over it until it is all wet. Bake in a quick oven till nicely browned.

MISS MALTBY.

- 2 cups of bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoonful of butter
- 1 scant teaspoonful of salt
- 1 teaspoonful of thyme or summer savory

Sew up fish and bake one hour; place slices of salt pork over fish; baste often; enough water should be put in pan to keep it from burning. Serve with cream sauce made as follows :

- Cream sauce (have ready in saucepan)
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of hot water
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce
- 1 cup cream or rich milk
- 2 tablespoonfuls of butter
- 1 tablespoonful of flour or corn starch

Salmon in Mould

1 can salmon or 1 pound of cold boiled salmon	4 tablespoonfuls of butter
3 eggs	1 cup of bread crumbs
	Milk, pepper and salt

Chop the fish and rub it in a bowl with a silver spoon with 4 tablespoonfuls of butter until it is a paste. Beat the bread crumbs with the well-beaten eggs and season with salt and pepper; adding this mixture to the salmon and working all together with a little milk or cream. Put in a covered buttered mould and boil one hour and a quarter. Turn out and serve with the following sauce:

1 cup of milk	1 tablespoonful corn starch
2 tablespoonfuls of butter	1 teaspoonful of catsup
Pinch of mace	Pepper
1 teaspoonful of chopped parsley	1 egg

Boil the milk and thicken with the corn starch and butter. Add the seasoning, pour all carefully over the beaten egg, cook one minute and pour over the form of salmon. Serve hot.

MRS. S. W. R. DALLY.

Escaloped Halibut

Will Serve Six Persons.

2 teacups halibut	1½ teacups milk
½ teacup fine bread crumbs	1 heaping tablespoonful flour
1 teaspoonful onion juice	1 tablespoonful butter
1 tablespoonful finely chop- ped parsley	Salt, cayenne

Take 2 cups of cold boiled halibut, pick into small pieces, removing all bone and skin. If a white or egg sauce was served with the fish and there is any left mix with the fish. As there is rarely enough left make a small quantity of white sauce. Mix one half of the sauce with the fish, the parsley, onion juice, salt if needed, and another speck of cayenne if needed. Butter a shallow pudding dish, put the fish in, smooth the top.

WEBB'S Extracts are triple strength. Use them.

cover with the remainder of the sauce (and also a sprinkle of parsley, so allow a little more than the tablespoonful), then the bread crumbs and $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoonful of butter scattered in bits over the bread crumbs.

Put the dish in a pan of boiling water and put in a rather quick oven for twenty minutes. Should brown nicely in that time.

MRS. EDMUND BOWDEN.

Halibut à la Poulette

Sprinkle three slices of halibut with the juice of 1 lemon and salt and pepper. Put a slice of onion on each and set away for thirty minutes. Dip each piece in melted butter, roll up and fasten with a toothpick. Put in a pan and dredge with flour and bake twenty minutes. Remove picks, sprinkle with the yolks of 3 hard-boiled eggs, chopped very fine. Pour over the sauce and garnish with the whites of the eggs cut into rings.

Sauce.

Boil $\frac{1}{4}$ tablespoonful of onion and 2 teaspoonfuls of butter and 2 tablespoonfuls of flour together until done. Stir in slowly 1 cup of soup stock, 1 cup of cream, 1 teaspoonful salt, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful of pepper, boil up once and strain and add 1 tablespoonful of lemon juice.

MRS. E. W. ANDREWS.

Fish Croquettes

Any fish may be used for croquettes, but the white meat is the best; for instance, halibut. After boiling, pick the fish into small pieces, taking out all the bones. Mix with a white sauce, season with salt and pepper, and a little chopped parsley, if desired. Shape into cylindrical balls, roll in crumbs, then egg, then crumbs again, and fry in deep lard. A nice way to use up cold fish.

MRS. WINFIELD R. SMITH.

HORSESHOE Soap for economy and quality.

Steamed Clams

Wash the clams thoroughly with a stiff brush. Fit a steamer with a soup plate, or better a jellycake tin, so that there is a margin all around to allow the steam to come up freely. Pile the clams on the tin, put in the steamer and cover closely. The kettle should be boiling hard and there should be plenty of water when the clams are put in. It will take fifteen minutes, or longer, for the clams to open, according to size, and they should be as nearly one size as possible. Have prepared some nice rounds of toast, hot; quickly take out the clams and lay on the toast, squeeze the juice of half a lemon into the tin with the clam liquor, add a dash or two of cayenne and pour over the clams; then bathe in melted butter, so that each clam is moistened. If you are quick you can cut off the black heads with scissors, which will improve them, but you must not let them cool. Serve immediately. The clams should be in the steamer only just long enough to open.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Devilled Clams No. 1

Serve Eight Persons.

4 qt. pail of clams (with shells on)	1 cup of cream or milk
	1 tablespoonful of butter
2 tablespoonfuls of flour	2 tablespoonfuls of dry bread crumbs
Yolks of 2 raw eggs
1 tablespoonful of chopped parsley	Salt and pepper to taste

Remove clams from their shells. Drain and rinse them. Chop very fine. Scald the cream (or milk). Rub the butter and flour together until smooth, add to the scalded cream and stir until it thickens. Then add bread crumbs, eggs and parsley. Take from the fire, mix well together, stir in the clams, add salt and pepper. Do not add salt until the clams are stirred in for they may flavor the mixture sufficiently. Fill clam, scallop or silver shells, brush over with the beaten yolk of an egg, sprinkle with bread crumbs and brown in a hot oven.

MRS. WM. H. DE WOLF.

Devilled Clams No. 2

25 good sized clams 1 small onion
3 crackers rolled fine 1 small piece of bacon
1 tablespoonful of butter

Chop together the clams, onion and bacon and dredge with the crackers. Wash some large shells, fill with the mixture which should be well seasoned with salt and pepper. On each shell put a small piece of butter and a sprig of parsley. Roast about fifteen minutes and serve hot.

MRS. DOUGLAS YOUNG.

Waldorf Clam Broth

1 quart "shucked" clams, boiled until perfectly tender, then squeezed until entirely dry. Season the juice thus obtained nicely with butter, pepper, salt and a hint of onion juice; thicken a little with flour. Serve in bouillon cups very hot. Just before sending to table put 1 tablespoonful of whipped cream on top of each cup (do not stir it in). If you cannot obtain fresh clams, you can get an excellent substitute in bottled clam juice. Very nice for luncheons and card parties.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Clam Pot Pie.

1 quart clams
1 dozen crackers pounded fine

Place a narrow rim of paste round the upper part of the baking dish. Then sprinkle a thin layer of the cracker over the bottom of the dish, then a layer of clams; over them place small pieces of butter, salt and pepper. Repeat until the last two layers, when use soda crackers in place of the powdered. Moisten the whole with a little milk, cover with a nice paste and bake like a pie.

MRS. V. A. RITON.

Clam Chowder

75 to 100 clams	Onions, chopped
4 slices of salt pork	Crackers

Clean the clams thoroughly, and if large, cut into small pieces. Fry the pork crisp, and chop. Sprinkle some of this in the bottom of the granite or porcelain kettle, lay upon them a stratum of clams, sprinkle with pepper and salt, and scatter bits of butter profusely over all. Next have a layer of chopped onions, then one of small crackers split and moistened with milk. On this pour a little of the fat in which the pork was fried. Repeat, beginning with the chopped pork. Proceed in this manner until all the clams are used. (The clams may be divided into two equal parts, making two complete layers.) Pour over all the liquid from the clams, and add enough water to cover all. Stew slowly, with the stew pan closely covered, three-quarters of an hour. If the chowder thickens too much while cooking, add more water.

Oyster Bouillon

Chop oysters finely, put into a double boiler and heat very slowly to draw out the juices. Put into a cheese cloth and press out the liquor. Return to the fire, clarify and strain as for beef bouillon, add an equal quantity of hot milk; season and serve. A little whipped cream improves it.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Oyster Cocktail

Served in punch or champagne glasses or bouillon cups. To every glass allow:

- 1 tablespoonful of lemon juice
 - 1 tablespoonful of strained tomato
 - 2 tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup
 - $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful Worcestershire sauce
 - 2 tablespoonfuls of Sound oysters
 - 1 drop tobasco sauce A little salt

If the tomato catsup is very mild, put in no strained tomato and proportionately more catsup.

MRS. WINFIELD R. SMITH.

Oyster Fricassee

Dry the oysters. Have some butter in a sancepan, and when it is brown add the oysters. Keep stirring them all the time in the hot butter, until they swell up; then add 1 pint of boiling cream, in which you have stirred 2 tablespoonfuls of flour; salt and pepper to taste. Have some large crackers warmed and on your meat platter, and pour your oysters over them.

Creamed Oysters

Put a bit of onion as large as a bean, and $\frac{1}{4}$ of a blade of mace, with a pint of cream, into a double boiler. Put 1 quart (or can) of Eastern oysters into a saucepan and let cook in their own liquor until they are plump and the edges begin to curl. Skim and set aside where they will keep hot but not cook. When the cream comes to a boil, thicken with a tablespoonful of flour mixed in a little cold cream or milk; let boil up, season with salt and cayenne, skim out the onion and mace. Drain the oysters and add to the cream. A dessert spoonful of sherry may be added if liked.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Frizzled Oysters

Have ready on a platter sufficient toast, which has been dipped quickly into hot, slightly salted water, and battered. Turn the oysters, with only their own liquor, into a very hot frying pan; season with salt and pepper. Soon as their edges begin to curl, stir in a large spoonful of butter, and turn immediately over the toast. Nice for breakfast.

Oysters en Beure Noir

1 pint of oysters 2 tablespoonfuls of butter
 1½ tablespoonfuls of vinegar Salt, and a dash of cayenne

Drain and rinse the oysters, let stand a half hour and cook in the liquor formed until plump, sprinkle with salt. Brown the butter, but be careful not to burn; add the pepper and vinegar, then the oysters. Fill Dresden fritters and serve hot.

MRS. FRANK MITCHELL.

Oysters Served in Shells

Drain six large oysters and wash the shells. Marinate the oysters with melted butter, salt and pepper and minced parsley. Fill the shells and cover with rolled bread crumbs. Put bits of butter on top and brown in a very hot oven.

MRS. FRANK MITCHELL,
 (Mrs. Hinkley's Portland cooking class.)

To Fry Small Oysters

1 quart of oysters 3 eggs, well beaten
 1 cup of corn meal

Drain the liquor from the oysters and wipe them dry. Take three or four at a time and dip into the egg, then in the meal, and again in the egg, keeping the oysters together. Put them on a platter until all are treated in this way, and then fry a few at a time in equal parts of hot butter and drippings. Olive oil may be used instead of butter and makes them very rich. Season with red pepper and salt to taste. Cook until brown, turning carefully to keep them in shape, and be sure they are well done. Serve very hot with slices of lemon.

Toasted Oysters

Wrap one large or two or three small oysters in very thin slices of bacon, having put a little cayenne and lemon juice on the oysters. Stick toothpicks through to hold in place, and broil or fry till bacon is crisp. Do not take out toothpicks. Serve hot.

MISS HOPKINS.

Olympia Oysters on Toast

1 quart of oysters	1 cup of cream or rich milk
2 tablespoonfuls of butter	2 tablespoonfuls of flour
1 teaspoonful of lemon juice	Salt and cayenne pepper

Drain the oysters and throw them into a hot pan and stir carefully until they look plump. Heat the butter, into which stir the flour, rubbing until smooth, and add gradually the cream. When thoroughly cooked pour over the oysters in the pan, heat through, put in the salt and pepper and lastly the lemon juice. Pour over crackers or nicely toasted bread.

MEATS

“O! the roast beef of Old England.”—Fiddling.

“Venison’s a Cæsar in the fiercest fray,
Turtle an Alexander in the way :
And in quarrels of a slighter nature,
Mutton’s a most successful mediator.”—Pindar.

Roast Beef

Buy a prime roast (first, second or third ribs). Have the butcher cut off the ends of the ribs, making a standing roast. Wipe clean with a damp cloth; do not wash. Put a heavy steel frying pan onto the range and let it get very hot, then put the roast in and sear over all the cut surfaces. This keeps the juices in, and if thoroughly done, a small roast can be made almost as juicy as a large one. Salt and pepper the meat, run a steel skewer through the fleshy part to keep it from bulging; put the meat rack in the pan, place the roast on it, cut side up, and dredge well with flour, not forgetting the pan. Put in the oven, and when the flour in the pan has browned, add enough hot water to just cover the bottom. The oven should be very hot at first, and should be diminished a little after the roast has browned. From this time baste every five minutes, keeping only enough water in the pan to prevent burning; any more makes too much steam and draws out the juices. An 8-pound roast will be well done on the outside and rare in middle in one hour. Save the ribs cut off, for braised short ribs.

WEBB'S Ground Spices are perfectly pure.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Braised Short Ribs

2 or 3 short ribs 1 onion
5 slices salt pork

Put the salt pork on the stove in a braising or dripping pan and slice the onion in it, fry till a golden brown, dredge the ribs well with flour and brown also; then cover with a pint of hot water, set in the oven and cook for three hours, having the braising pan closely covered. Baste often and add more water if necessary. This is a very satisfactory way to treat any of the tougher cuts of meat. Sprinkle quite thickly with pepper and salt; it is impossible to give exact quantity as it would vary with weight of meat.

MRS. R. W. EMMONS.

Leg of Lamb With Dressing.

Buy a hind quarter of spring lamb, have the leg cut off and boned the same as a fillet of veal. The remainder of the quarter may be cut into chops. Make dressing, using about $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups of grated bread, 1 tablespoonful of minced mint, salt and pepper, soft butter sufficient to moisten slightly, and about half as many chopped pecans as bread crumbs. Rub the meat with salt and pepper inside and out, put in the dressing, taking care to fill the cavity so as to give shape to the leg, but do not press too tight or the dressing will be heavy. Roast about fifteen minutes to the pound; baste very often, or it will be dry. Put a bouquet of herbs, or a few sprigs of mint in the pan, and serve with a nice brown or mint sauce, or with a mint sorbet.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

WEBB'S Extracts are triple strength. Use them.

Leg of Mutton

Peel back the outside skin and with a sharp pointed knife make slits or gashes, into which force thin slices of salt pork which have been rolled in equal parts of ground cloves and allspices. Replace the skin and roast, basting frequently.

MRS. HELEN M. HUNT.

Boiled Dinner

If one will only take the trouble, it pays to corn the beef and thus avoid the use of saltpeter. To corn: Put a pint of rock salt to 1 gallon of cold water, let it come to a boil, skimming carefully. Cool before putting in the beef. A six pound piece of the flank is a good piece. Leave in brine four or five days. Cook in a kettle large enough to hold both meat and vegetables. Put the meat on in hot water and boil three hours before adding the vegetables. These can be used according to taste. The usual ones are potatoes, cabbage, turnips and beets; some, however, add carrots and parsnips. Put the first three into a wire basket on top of meat, keeping all covered with water and boil one hour, making four hours the entire time for boiling meat. The beets, on account of discoloring the other vegetables, should be boiled in a separate kettle, and unless very young will require two hours boiling.

A boiled dinner may be served in two ways. The meat on a large platter, with the vegetables placed around it, or the potatoes and turnips mashed separately or together, and beets and cabbage each in a vegetable dish.

MRS. SARAH COXANT.

Veal Cutlets

Dip the cutlets in egg, then in bread crumbs, and cook on top of the stove until brown on both sides.

HORSESHOE Soap will not shrink your flannels.

Then cover and cook in the oven about three-quarters of an hour. Make a brown thickened gravy, of the fat in the pan after the cutlets are removed, a good lump of butter, some flour and heated milk. Pour over the cutlets on the platter.

Mrs. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

To Fry Chicken

Joint the chicken as for frying; put into a dish and set into a steamer, which should be ready with the water boiling, and steam until tender. Take up and fry quickly in very hot fat, half butter and half beef suet, until lightly browned. Serve with a cream gravy. An onion and a stalk of celery cut up finely and put into the steamer with the chicken gives a good flavor. This method is for a chicken a year old.

Mrs. HINCHLIFFE.

Roast Turkey or Chicken

Having prepared the fowls for roasting, make a thick dough of Graham flour and water and roll out one inch thick. Have it large enough to cover the fowl completely. Butter the fowl thoroughly, then place the rolled dough over, being careful to press down around the neck and legs. Pour boiling water into the pan about one inch deep. Have the oven very hot, keep just enough water in the bottom of pan to prevent burning. One-half hour before serving time remove the pan from the oven and lift off the dough blanket. The turkey will be tender, but white. Cool the oven and brown the turkey. There is no basting or opening of the oven door except to see that the water in the pan has not boiled out.

A LITTLE DINNER

“Without good company, all dainties
Lose their true relish, and like painted grapes
Are only seen, not tasted.”

The giving of a small dinner in a household where several trained servants are kept is a matter of little moment to the hostess, who has simply to notify her cook of the number of guests expected, give her orders as to menu, etc., and then dismiss from her mind all feeling of responsibility, and await with composure the arrival of her guests. In the ordinary home, however, where as a rule one, or at most, two maids are kept, the addition of several guests to the dinner table requires much thought and preparation which necessarily must devolve upon the mistress. Successful dinner-giving, like genius, implies an infinite capacity for taking pains. In giving a small dinner of, say, six guests in addition to the family, it is necessary to first consider the resources of the household in the way of dishes, silver, etc., as upon these will depend the number of courses in the menu. This inspection completed, the next step is the preparation of the menu, not forgetting in the consideration of each dish the possibilities of the cook in the way of losing her head at the prospect of guests. It is a good plan to select only those dishes which the cook has tried before, as even the best of cooks frequently fails to succeed in the first trial of a new receipt. As far as possible it is advisable to select dishes which may be prepared the preceding day, thus lessening the work and confusion on the day of the dinner. Salted almonds, cheese sticks, patéshells and all kinds of blanc mange and jellies should be prepared the day before. The question of menu settled, all orders should be given the day before, so that no harrowing non-arrival of some essential article shall mar the composure of the hostess. On the morning of the day for the dinner the mistress should explain to the waitress which plates and other dishes are to be used for each course; it is a good plan to write on slips of paper the words, "Fish," "Roast," "Salad," "Entrée," etc., and put the paper on top of the pile of plates to be used for that purpose. A menu should be prepared very plainly and distinctly written, giving the exact order in which the courses are to be served, stating what dishes are to be passed with each course and when to use the crumb knife. The menu may be written thus :

HORSESHOE Soap for Luck.

MENU.

- | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------------|-------------|
| 1. Raw Oysters. | | |
| 2. Soup. | Pass crackers. | |
| 3. Fish. | Pass potatoes, then bread. | |
| 4. Roast. | Pass vegetables and celery. | |
| 5. Entrée. | Pass jelly. | |
| 6. Sorbet. | | |
| 7. Game. | Pass olives. | |
| 8. Salad. | Pass cheese sticks. | |
| 9. Use crumb knife. | | |
| 10. Pudding. | | |
| 11. Ice Cream. | | |
| | Fruit. | Cake. Nuts. |
| | | Cheese. |
| 12. Coffee. | | |

The menu should be pinned in a conspicuous place where the maids may refer to it readily. After the

WEBB'S Extracts are triple strength. Use them.

table is set the mistress should make a thorough inspection of the dining room, to see that the necessary extra silver and china is laid out upon the sideboard, that the arrangement of decorations and of lights is satisfactory and that the temperature is neither too high nor too low, as none but a thoroughly competent waitress could be trusted to attend to these details. It is better to err on the side of too low a temperature for the dining room than too high, as with the lights, the warm food and the number of people, the room is likely to become uncomfortably warm. With final admonitions to the maids in regard to the different viands, the warmth of the soup, the coolness of the water and other details, the mistress should try to slip up to her room in time to insure at least a few moments quiet and rest before dressing to receive her guests. At the appointed time the maid should throw open the doors of the dining room, and upon the signal "Dinner is served," the host should lead to the dining room, escorting the lady in whose honor the dinner is given, the other guests following, and the hostess last of all with the gentleman to be most honored. Confusion is avoided by having name cards at each place, the guests of honor of course being seated at the right of the host and hostess. If the first course consists of oysters these are upon the table when the guests enter the dining room, and as either a cube of bread or a roll has previously been placed in a fold of the napkin for each guest, no dishes are to be passed during this course. The maid stations herself back of the chair of the host and after the oysters are eaten, at a look from the mistress she removes the plates. The dishes should always be served at the left side and removed from the right side. Taking care not to pile too many dishes upon her tray at once, the maid swiftly and noiselessly transfers the oyster plates to a table in the kitchen assigned to that purpose. After the oysters follow soup, with which crackers are usually passed; then fish with its accompanying cucumbers or other relish; then roast entrées, sorbet, game and salad, each in turn served with its accompanying dishes in strict accordance with the written menu. When the salad is finished, all side dishes, and salts and peppers, should be taken away and all crumbs removed neatly with a crumb knife or napkin and the maid should see that the necessary dessert forks and spoons are at each cover. If preferred the dessert may be placed before either the host or hostess, who will serve her guests, the maid standing ready to pass each plate as it is served. After the pudding course has been removed comes either the pastry or ice. When this course is finished finger bowls may be placed at each plate, and at the same time come fruits, nuts, and raisins. Last of all the coffee in small cups, which should be served fresh and very hot. When dinner is over, the hostess gives the signal to arise and the host leads to the drawing room, after which the gentlemen, if they wish, may retire to smoke.

fully stirring, then add the flour and stir well for a moment or two. Pour in the stock, or water will do, (a little gravy left from the roast may be added to the water). simmer about fifteen or twenty minutes, then add the gelatine, and when it is dissolved, a tablespoonful of sherry or more to your taste. There should be about $1\frac{1}{2}$ pints of the liquor. Put a little of the liquor in a mould; a narrow bread tin is good; then a layer of hard-boiled eggs sliced; then the chicken laid lengthwise of the tin; then more of the liquor and another layer of eggs, and cover all with the liquor. If you like, a layer of chopped mushrooms may be put through the center of the chicken, making two layers of chicken. Set aside to harden. Turn out of the mould and cut in thin slices.

baking powder	2 veal kidneys
Pepper and salt	1 large onion

Chop the suet very fine, put in the flour, salt and baking powder; then mix to a stiff dough with cold water. Roll out, not too thin, line a basin holding about two quarts with part of it. Cut the steak into pieces about an inch square, rejecting all bones, gristle and fat; have salt and pepper mixed, in the proportion of 1 small teaspoonful of pepper to 2 large ones of salt, in a small dish. Now dip your pieces of steak and kidney on one side in the mixed salt and pepper, lay evenly on the crust in the bottom of the basin. When the bottom is covered put a layer of the onion very thinly sliced and finish with the seasoned meat, making three layers. Wet the edges of the crust, put on the top crust, press the edges closely together and leave no holes in the top. Wring a cloth out of hot water, flour well and tie very tightly over the basin, put in a kettle of boiling water and boil for three hours. Serve in the dish in which it is cooked.

The kidneys may be omitted and more steak used in place of them.

In using the kidneys cut out the centers well.

Sweetbreads

In whatever manner sweetbreads are to be served they must first be parboiled and blanched. The following is a good way to do this:

As soon as received they should be put into cold water, and this should be changed two or three times, if they are bloody, until they are quite white; then put them in a saucepan, cover with boiling water, add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of salt, and let them simmer on the back of the range for twenty minutes. If to this water you add $\frac{1}{2}$ a blade of mace, a couple of cloves, a bit of stick cinnamon, $\frac{1}{2}$ a bay leaf and a very slight grating of onion they will be much finer flavored in whatever way they are prepared. After simmering, drain and throw them into icewater and let them stand for an hour. Drain, free from fat and membrane, and they are ready to be cooked by any of the various methods.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

the shell. Fry them in hot fat and fill with any kind of minced meat or fish. Mackerel with parsley sauce is very good.

MRS. BEATRICE GREEN.

Baked Mushrooms

Peel the mushrooms, then cut the tops and upper portion of the stems into pieces of uniform size. Place in a buttered pan, with salt, pepper and bits of butter, and bake until the mushrooms seem tender, or about fifteen to twenty minutes. When almost ready to serve pour over them enough sweet cream to cover them; let all heat up together and serve very hot. In the absence of cream, milk may be used, but more butter must then be added.

MRS. C. P. DAM.

Mushroom Entrée

1 cup of mushrooms
1 cup of chicken, or sweetbreads

Cut the chicken into dice, or if you use sweetbreads, which are even more delicate than chicken, boil and cut into small pieces. Cut the mushrooms in halves and mix with the meat. Make a white sauce, and season with salt, pepper, a dash of onion juice and a hint of bayleaf. Stir the mixture into this sauce, and serve very hot in small entrée dishes. Just before sending to the table put a tablespoonful of whipped cream on each dish.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Croustades of Asparagus

Cup off the tops of rolls or biscuits, scrape out the inside and set, with the tops in the oven to crisp. Make a white sauce, add the tips of 2 bunches of cooked asparagus; fill the rolls with this, put on the tops and serve very hot.

MRS. FRANK MITCHELL.
(Mrs. Hinekley's Portland Cooking Class.)

Fruit Entrée

Take equal quantities of white grapes skinned, small pieces of oranges picked with a fork, small pieces of bananas; use the juice also. Sweeten to taste. Keep several hours in icebox. Serve in glass lemonade cups, or bouillon cups, and just before serving add fine sherry to taste and 2 or 3 candied cherries to each glass.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Lobster Baskets.

Get fresh lobsters if possible, if not canned will do. Cut fresh bread into slices a full inch thick, then cut with a large biscuit cutter into round pieces (without crust), scoop out of the center of the bread circle, a hole half way down to the bottom, drop them into boiling lard and fry a delicate golden brown. Meanwhile prepare a white sauce, beat it and stir in while hot small pieces of lobster. Fill the holes in the bread circles with this creamed lobster preparation, grate a little of the coral over the top and put small claws in like handles to the baskets, tied at the top with red baby ribbon, if you can get fresh lobsters, if not, lay each filled basket on a lettuce leaf and serve on an individual plate. The baskets and "filling" must be served very hot. Add a little sherry to the lobster if desired.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Celeried Oysters

For 1 dozen large oysters, put 1 teaspoonful of butter in a stewpan, add 1 tablespoonful of minced celery and the oysters; cover and cook till the oysters are plump and the edges begin to curl; add the seasoning and the sherry; let it boil once, and serve very hot on toast.

WEBB'S Extracts are triple strength. Use them.

Oyster Kabobs

Put 1 large tablespoonful of butter in a stewpan, add a small onion, chopped very fine, a dessert spoonful of parsley and a dozen mushrooms chopped; let these fry one minute; add 1 dessert spoonful (scant) of flour, stir well together; then drop in as many oysters as required, which have previously been blanched and bearded. Stir and add the beaten yolks of three eggs, one at a time, taking care they do not curdle but get just thick enough to adhere to the oysters. Take skewers and string 6 oysters onto each one, basting with the sauce wherever it does not adhere. Let these cool, then roll in beaten egg and abundant cracker meal, so that it looks like a sausage with a skewer run through lengthwise. Fry, in deep fat, two minutes. Great care must be taken to have the fat hot enough, about 380 to 400 degrees, so that the oysters will become a pale brown in that time, as they would become hard and tough if cooked longer. Serve on a napkin, allowing one skewer to each person.

ADELAIDE M. BLACKEELL.

Oysters à la Poulette.

Put 2 tablespoonfuls of butter in a hot saucepan, melt and add 2 tablespoonfuls of chopped onion and 1 of parsley, 1 bay leaf and a sprig of thyme. Simmer for ten minutes, then add 2 tablespoonfuls of flour. Have 1 cup of stock hot and pour gradually over the ingredients in the saucepan; strain into a double boiler; season; add 1 cup of hot cream, and stir well until thick.

Drain 1 pint of oysters, pour cold water over them and drain again, then squeeze lemon juice over them and cook till plump, and add to the sauce.

Have ready shells prepared as follows: Cut slices of bread an inch and a quarter thick, and with a biscuit cutter cut rounds from each slice. With a smaller cutter cut nearly through the round and remove the center, leaving a cup. Roll these in beaten egg, then in

CHAFING DISH

A true epicure can dine well on one dish, provided it is excellent of its kind.

While the use of the chafing dish is said to date from the days of Homer, its present popularity is due to a revival of the past few years, and although the possession of one is a thing to be desired by the "gude wife" in her housekeeping, it is equally popular in the bachelor apartments, the artists' quarters in modern Bohemia, the light housekeeping of flats, the summer outing in a houseboat or to put in one's canoe, for a dainty tidbit on shore, after an evening's paddle. The modern chafing dish when complete consists of the stand and lamp, dish proper, cutlet dish, and hot water pan, and while preferable in sterling silver, just as good results have been made with a granite iron one, especially if to the delights of the palate there is added "A congenial group who make possible the feast of reason and flow of soul." Some objection has been made on account of the expense of fuel. In the Gorham Manufacturing Company's Chafing Dish book they claim ten of the recipes were prepared in one of their dishes and less than a pint of alcohol used. Wood alcohol we recommend as cheaper and just as good as grain alcohol. Except for coffee and tea, which can be made over another spirit lamp, almost any light breakfast or luncheon can be prepared on a chafing dish, and for late suppers for a few, no other way is as practicable. It is also an attractive way of serving an entrée at dinner.

HORSESHOE Soap for Good Luck.

Always use a wooden spoon to avoid scratching the dish. Most of these recipes are improved by serving on fresh toasted bread or crackers.

Any ordinary cooking done in a saucepan on the range can be done in a chafing dish. Chops and steak can be daintily done by using a scant amount of butter. Chicken, trout, frogs legs, crab chops, liver and bacon can all be done equally well. The limits of the chafing dish include most breakfast and luncheon dishes and the majority of entrées. For a quick meal on a chafing dish nothing equals one of the many preparations of eggs, boiled, poached, fried with bacon, scrambled or in one of the many omelettes.

Scramble

Put a walnut of butter in chafing dish and drop eggs in whole. When they begin to set, stir lightly so when cooked the mixture is even white and yellow in appearance. Some add a tablespoonful or two of cream or milk.

Omelette

Some go so far as to make a fine omelette the test of a good cook, but once the knack is learned it is so simple and there are so many happy combinations it is quite worth the effort to do it well.

Plain Omelette

Is the foundation for all. The number of eggs depends on size of the chafing dish as well as the number to serve. Five eggs makes a good omelette. Beat whites and yolks separately, the former very stiff. Give the yolks about twelve good beats; add a large tablespoonful of milk to every two yolks, or if you find after making once, you prefer it more moist, take a small tablespoonful of milk to each egg, add pepper and salt to yolks, then put yolks and beaten whites together, mixing quickly. Have ready the hot chafing dish with a walnut of butter sizzling hot and pour in your mixture. Do not stir. This is perhaps the only chafing dish preparation that requires the use of a knife, but for the success of an omelette a broad-bladed knife must be slipped about the edges and under the omelette to lift it just a little all the time, to keep from burning. When it is set, run the knife under one edge and slip on a hot platter, deftly folding over one-half of the omelette on the other.

WEBB'S Ground spices are perfectly pure.

Cheese Omelette

Is made as above with the addition of grated cheese according to taste.

Oyster Omelette

When a plain omelette is prepared to serve, have ready a small oyster stew, and before folding the omelette lift several spoonfuls of oysters into the center of the omelette and fold over.

Peas Omelette

Peas left from dinner may be heated over and folded in plain omelette. Asparagus heads, corn, tomatoes, minced ham and other combinations will suggest themselves, and a little ingenuity can develop original omelettes.

Sweetbreads

There are many excellent ways of cooking sweetbreads in a chafing dish, but whether cooked at table or on the kitchen range, they must first stand in cold water an hour or two, then they should be parboiled, cooled, and all rough edges, membranes and sinews removed. They should then be put in cold water and kept on ice until wanted for the chafing dish. Calf's brains are prepared in the same way and may be cooked in any style sweetbreads are.

WEBB'S Extracts are triple strength. Use them.

Creamed Sweetbreads

Put into the chafing dish a walnut of butter; when it melts put in slices of sweetbread or brains, cut not too thin nor yet too thick, or if preferred, cut in dice, and saute in butter. Open a can of French mushrooms, rinse in cold water, cut half of them into quarters, add them to sweetbread with 1 pint of cream; season with salt and pepper. Dissolve 1 heaping tablespoonful of flour, add it and simmer until the sauce is thick and smooth.

(Gorham Chafing Dish Recipes.)

Sweetbreads With Peas

Put into the hot water dish a teaspoonful of butter; toss about in the dish the three small sweetbreads which have been prepared as in the foregoing recipe. They may be larded also. When they have absorbed the butter and are in danger of burning, add $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of strong beef or veal broth or gravy, 1 celery leaf chopped fine, salt, pepper and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of browned flour. Turn the sweetbreads, and when the sauce is reduced one-half the dish is ready.

Open a can of best green peas, or cooked fresh ones are better; put them into cutlet dish with 1 tablespoonful of butter, salt and pepper. When the peas are warmed through they are done. Serve both together.

(Gorham Chafing Dish Recipes.)

Lobster or Crab à la Newburg

Take 1 large cup of meat, cut into pieces about one inch long. Put an ounce of butter in the pan and add meat, tossing it about. Season with salt and pepper to suit and add 1 cup of heavy cream sauce. When well heated add the yolk of 1 raw egg and 3 tablespoonfuls of sherry. Serve on small pieces of dry toast.

RECTOR, Chicago.

Corned Beef Hash à la Murrey

The first important step is to select the proper cut of corned beef; the second is to be positive that raw potatoes only are used, cold boiled potatoes will spoil the dish.

Select a very fine piece of navel corned beef, weighing about 3 pounds; boil it half an hour in hot water, then take it out, throw the water away and cover the meat with tepid water. Simmer on back of the range two and a half hours; remove the pot from the range and allow the meat to cool in the water. Skim off the fat and remove the meat, placing it in ice box until next day. Cut into small pieces 2 pounds of the beef; peel, slice and cut into dice enough raw potatoes, which when cut up will equal in quantity the cut meat. Peel and cut up fine 1 large sour apple; chop these ingredients together in a chopping bowl. Cut up fine 2 medium sized onions; also a large sweet Spanish pepper, not the hot variety; now put into a large frying pan a scant tablespoonful of beef drippings—butter will not do. When hot add the onion and fry a delicate brown. Next add the pepper, toss about for a few moments, then add a gill of strong beef stock, after which the other chopped ingredients, with a pint of beef stock, or strong broth; mix well, cover and simmer thirty minutes. Should the moisture evaporate too quickly add more of the broth; stir to prevent sticking to the pan and also to assist in evaporating the moisture finally. Taste for seasoning and put away until next day, when it should be warmed in the chafing dish with the hot water dish underneath it.

Melt a walnut of butter in the cutlet dish; when the butter is melted add the cheese, and as it melts, stir with a wooden spoon; add 1 tablespoonful of ale every few minutes until four or five are used. Cook six minutes; serve on toast. Do not make the mistake of putting large pieces of cheese into the dish or the rarebit will be lumpy.

Diluted with crude milk in proportion of from two to four parts of milk to one part of HIGHLAND EVAPORATED CREAM, an excellent cream is obtained for ice cream and other purposes.

Three parts of water added to two parts of HIGHLAND EVAPORATED CREAM reduce it to the consistency of very rich milk. This solution is a healthful drink and answers every purpose for which fluid milk may be used.

Leading physicians recommend HIGHLAND EVAPORATED CREAM as the Ideal Food for Infants.

Mayonnaise No. 1

2 eggs (yolks only)	1 teaspoonful dry mustard
1 teaspoonful sugar	1 teaspoonful salt
2 tablespoonfuls vinegar	Juice of 1 lemon
1 pint best olive oil	A dash of cayenne

Rub the inside of a bowl with a slice of onion; beat the yolks of the eggs with the dry ingredients and with a silver fork beat in the oil, pouring in only a drop or two at a time. Always stir one way, and always be sure that the last drops of oil are stirred in thoroughly before adding more. After the mixture becomes thick and rosy the oil may be added in a little larger quantities, but it is better to be too careful rather than not enough so. If the mixture separates it is probably because it is not chilled enough or because the oil has been added too rapidly. Set the bowl on the ice in the refrigerator for fifteen or twenty minutes, then try again; if it still will not mix, add the yolk (very cold) of another egg, and perhaps a second one may be added. If it is still obstinate, and it is necessary to finish the dressing at once, it will be best to set this away and begin over again, taking great care that all the materials and utensils are well chilled, and in warm weather, or a warm room, set the bowl in a dish of cracked ice while beating. Sometimes two or three hours' chilling will bring the old dressing out all right; sometimes a few drops of lemon juice or a little unbeaten white of egg will restore consistency.

After the dressing becomes quite stiff and hard to stir, a few drops of lemon or vinegar may be added, then more oil and so on till all of the oil has been used. It is impossible to give exact quantities of vinegar and seasoning for a salad dressing, so much depends upon the strength of the materials; so that much must be left to the taste. But lemon juice is better than all vinegar, and tarragon vinegar is a great improvement upon cider vinegar.

To keep, this dressing should be thick enough to cut with a knife, put into a fruit jar and kept in the ice chest. The quantity needed may be thinned to the proper consistency by adding whipped cream, thick sweet cream, or sour cream. The white of an egg beaten to a stiff froth and added at the last makes it very light and delicate.

4 tablespoonfuls of butter	1 tablespoonful of flour
1 tablespoonful of salt	1 ounce of sugar
1 large teaspoonful of mustard	1 cup of milk
	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup of vinegar
3 eggs	A pinch of cayenne

Heat the butter in custard kettle; add flour, stirring until smooth, being careful not to brown. Add the milk and boil up. Beat the eggs, salt, pepper, nutmeg and sugar together, and add vinegar. Mix with the boiling mixture and stir until it thickens like soft custard. Let cool and bottle, and it will keep in a cool place for weeks. Yolks of eggs may be used, requiring six yolks for this quantity.

MRS. CORWIN S. SHANK.

Salad Dressing

2 medium-sized boiled potatoes. While hot pass through a sieve; add well beaten yolks of 2 raw eggs, mixed mustard and salt to taste, and when well mixed and cold, beat in gradually and thoroughly as much oil as it will bear until stiff enough to bear up a fork. Put in vinegar, using your judgment as to quantity, and a dash of red pepper. If the oil does not mix readily, add a drop or two of vinegar or cold water. It needs a deal of beating and should be quite thick and creamy when done.

Boil some potatoes, mash smooth, put in salt and butter and line your dish with them; cut fine some cold roast beef, add some chopped onion, red peppers, thyme and parsley. Put in a pan with some lard and fry a little; add some soaked bread, and if too dry a little water. When nicely fried put in your potato dish. Slice some hard boiled eggs over it, cover with mashed potato and brown in oven.

Boiled Cucumbers

6 cucumbers	6 slices of toast
1 cup of milk	1 tablespoonful of butter
Pepper and salt

Pare the cucumbers and slice lengthwise of the vegetable into long strips about the size of asparagus. Boil about twenty minutes until tender, drain and serve on toast. Cover with milk heated to boiling point; seasoned with butter, pepper and salt; if preferred the milk may be thickened with a little flour. This tastes very much like asparagus on toast and is an excellent substitute.

Stuffed Egg Plant

Will Serve Four Persons.

1 egg plant	1 teacup of chopped cold
1 teacup of bread crumbs	roast beef or steak, or
1½ tablespoonfuls of butter	½ pound round steak
1 teaspoonful of cracker	cooked and chopped
dust	Pepper and salt

Buy a good shaped egg plant weighing about a pound; cut the blossom end so that it will stand upright. Cut the stem end off about two inches from the top and peel the piece cut off. Now carefully remove the inside of the egg plant leaving the shell about a quarter of an inch thick. Stew the egg plant in just enough water to keep from burning until tender, about an hour, stirring often; mash, season with salt and pepper and 1 tablespoonful of butter and beat well. It will be dark in color. Mix the egg plant, bread crumbs and meat thoroughly, put back in the shell, dust the cracker crumbs on the top and dot it with the ½ tablespoonful of butter. Put it in a pan, without water, but slightly greased, in a hot oven and bake until the top is brown—about twenty minutes.

Stewed Tomatoes

Stew the tomatoes a few minutes, sweeten them; then add crumbled crackers, biscuit or light bread. Set the dish inside the oven until a crust forms.

MRS. THOMAS GREEN.

Stuffed Tomatoes

Select firm, large and ripe tomatoes; with a sharp knife cut a deep piece from the stem end of each; press them between the palms to extract as many of the seeds as possible without injury to the shape of the fruit; stuff them with any kind of chopped meat—ham, sausage or beef. Place them side by side in a dish well buttered. Sift bread crumbs thickly over the top, dot it with bits of butter, a teaspoonful in each. Bake in hot oven thirty minutes. They should be a light brown when properly cooked.

1 cup of tomatoes	Pepper and salt

Put a heaping teaspoonful of butter, broken in bits on the top and bake twenty minutes or half an hour.

The mutton should be chopped fine and all stringy and very fatty parts picked out. A nice breakfast or luncheon dish.

English Pasty

$\frac{1}{4}$ pound of suet $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of lard
1 quart of flour

Make a stiff paste, roll thin, and cut into as many pieces as you wish. Parsley or turnip may be used in place of onions. Season to suit taste. Close the other half of the paste over these ingredients and pinch into a roll. Make small hole in the top and pour in a little water; close again with small pieces of paste. Bake for one hour. Pork or chicken can be used in place of steak.

Tomato Toast With Fish

Cut cold buttered toast in squares or rounds, lay a ring of tomatoes on this and some flakes of cold cooked codfish on the top. Garnish with parsley.

GERMEA—The Delightful Breakfast Dish.

Hash

Use equal quantities of chopped meat and fresh grated bread; moisten well with milk, stock or gravy; season well with salt, pepper, and a little tomato, walnut or mushroom catsup. Let cook slowly about fifteen minutes; add a good lump of butter and serve very hot. Half potatoes may be used instead of all bread if desired.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Corned Beef Hash

Equal quantities of cold corned beef, chopped, and cold boiled potatoes, chopped (mashed potatoes may be used but are not so nice); put into a stew pan, and moisten with stock, water or milk; a little left-over gravy is a nice addition. Let simmer, season with salt, cayenne and butter, and any sauce or catsup that is liked. Have an omelette pan very hot, put in a bit of butter sufficient to moisten the bottom thoroughly, put the hash in and spread evenly. Draw onto the back of the stove and let brown without stirring. Fold like an omelette, toss onto a hot platter and serve with tartare sauce. A few tablespoonfuls of chopped beets make a pleasant change.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Lancashire Pie

Take cold beef, veal or mutton, chop and season as for hash; have ready hot mashed potatoes, seasoned as if for table. Put in a shallow baking dish alternate layers of meat and potatoes till the dish is heaping full; smooth over top of potatoes and drop bits of butter over it; bake until a nice brown.

MRS. JOSEPH SHIPPEN.

Chicken Timbales

Chop uncooked lean chicken, freed from skin and bones, very fine; pound with a potato masher and rub through a sieve. There should be a half pint of meat. Cook 1 cup of cream, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of grated bread, and a tiny bit of mace for fifteen minutes. Take out the mace, and beat and mash the mixture till it is a smooth paste; add 3 ounces of butter, salt and pepper to taste, and the chopped meat; beat well, and add the stiffly beaten whites of 2 eggs. Set away to cool. When cold butter the timbale moulds and line with the paste. This must be done very evenly and great care must be taken that there are no thin places. When this is done fill with creamed chicken made as follows:

- 1 cup of cold diced chicken
- 3 tablespoonfuls of mushrooms (chopped), or
- 2 tablespoonfuls of mushrooms and 1 of hard-boiled eggs (chopped)
- 1 dessert spoonful of flour
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of cream

Mix the flour with a little of the cream, put the remainder on to cook in the double boiler. When this boils add the flour and cook for a minute to thicken the flour; add the chicken and the mushrooms, salt and pepper to taste. Mix thoroughly and cook about five minutes; take from the fire, grate in a hint of onion, and if you use it, a tablespoonful of sherry, in which case omit a tablespoonful of cream. Fill the lined moulds with this mixture, putting in a little at a time that there may be no air bubbles. Fill almost to the top and cover with paste, being careful to cover every part of the filling and not to heap it, but to have the top perfectly level with the edges of the mould. Put the moulds into a bain marie, or a deep pan, fill nearly to the top of the mould with warm water and bake a half hour. The oven should be about right for custards, so that the mixture will never bubble. Cover the moulds with buttered paper. They may be served on a napkin or on a hot dish with cream mushroom, Suprême or Béchamel sauce. Nice for luncheons, card parties or entrées.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Sweetbread Timbales

These are prepared almost the same as chicken timbales, substituting sweetbreads for chicken in the filling, or part sweetbreads and part breast of chicken. Use the same paste for lining the moulds. If you wish them very elaborate, after buttering the moulds stick slices of mushrooms around the sides and bottom of the moulds; then line with the paste very carefully, so as not to displace them; hard-boiled eggs chopped, or almonds blanched, browned a little and chopped, may be used in the same manner.

Plain Omelette

The fire should be quite hot. Put a sauté pan or smooth iron spider on the stove, break the eggs into a basin, sprinkle over them pepper and salt, and give them twelve vigorous beats with a spoon. Put butter the size of an egg (this is enough for five eggs) in the heated pan, turn it around so that it will moisten all the bottom of the pan. When it is well melted and begins to boil, pour in the eggs. Holding the handle of the omelette pan in the left hand, carefully and lightly with a spoon draw up the whitened egg from the bottom, so that all the eggs may be equally cooked to a soft creamy substance. Now still with the left hand shake the pan forward and backward, which will disengage the eggs from the bottom; turn with a knife half of one side over the other, and allowing it to remain a moment to harden at the bottom, gently shaking it all the time, toss it once on to a warm platter held in the right hand. If unsuccessful in the tossing operation, one can lift the omelette to the platter with a pancake turner. It should be creamy and light in the center and firmer on the outside. A variety of omelettes may be made in the same way by adding boiled tongue cut into dice, sliced truffles, cooked and sliced kidneys with the gravy poured around.

MRS. D. C. GARRETT.

Omelette With Tomatoes

Just before folding the omelette place in the center three or four whole tomatoes boiled and seasoned. When the omelette is turned of course the tomatoes will be enveloped. Serve with tomato sauce.

MRS. D. C. GARRETT.

Omelette

Crumb 1 slice of bread and soak in hot milk. Beat the whites of 4 eggs to a high froth. Beat the bread with all the milk it will absorb, no more, add beaten yolks and a little salt. Put one ounce of butter in frying pan. When hot pour in omelette; when set put in the oven for five minutes. This will never fall.

S. E. W.

Quaking Omelette

Four eggs, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of milk, a rounded tablespoonful of flour and a teaspoonful of salt. Beat together the yolks of eggs, flour and salt; add them to milk. Then whip whites to a froth and stir into mixture. Put 1 tablespoonful of butter into a hot frying pan; turn mixture in. In about one minute put the pan into the oven; remain six minutes. Have a hot platter ready and a cup of cream sauce well seasoned. Turn the omelette on the platter, but do not try to fold it. Pour sauce around it. Serve at once; will fall if let stand.

MRS. L. H. GRAY.

Savory Omelette

4 eggs	1 tablespoonful of butter
1 teaspoonful of grated onion	1 teaspoonful of chopped parsley
1 tablespoonful of chopped ham	Salt and pepper

Melt the butter in hot omelette pan. Beat the eggs lightly, just enough to mix, stir in the other ingredients, and pour in the hot pan. As soon as the edges begin to set, fold over half, cook one minute longer, turn on a hot dish and serve immediately.

These same ingredients, omitting the eggs, cooked with the butter until very hot, and spread on buttered toast, make a breakfast or luncheon dish which is excellent.

MRS. BONE.

Oyster Omelette

6 eggs, beaten separately	6 tablespoonfuls of flour
6 tablespoonfuls of cream	Oysters

BREAD

“Here is bread which strengthens men’s hearts,
And therefore is called The Staff of Life.”

“The bread of life is love; the salt of life is work; the water of life is faith.”

Irish Potato Yeast

6 medium sized potatoes $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of sugar
2 tablespoonfuls of salt 1 “magic yeast” cake

Boil potatoes in 3 pints of water. When done mash in the remaining water, and add sufficient cold water to make the consistency of thick cream. When lukewarm add sugar, salt and yeast cake. Press out carefully all of the lumps, using the hands in doing so. Set in a moderately warm place to rise, then remove to a cold place and the yeast will keep sweet until consumed. One small teacupful is sufficient for a quart of flour.

MRS. W. H. H. GREEN.

Mary’s Bread and Rolls

Put 3 quarts of flour in a pan and make a hollow in the middle of it, into which pour a pint of lukewarm water in which half a yeast cake has been dissolved. Let this stand over night where it will not become chilled. In the morning, to $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of lukewarm water and the same of milk add a tablespoonful each of salt, sugar and shortening, and stir this into the sponge.

HORSESHOE Soap, Big Cake, 5c.

Let it rise for about an hour and a half, then add flour until stiff, kneading well. Let it stand again from one and a half to two hours or until light; then make into loaves.

For rolls—Save out 1 quart of the bread dough and add to it 1 tablespoonful each of sugar, lard and butter. Mix well and let it rise again, then make it into rolls.

This quantity makes three loaves of bread and about three dozen rolls.

MRS. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

Bread

3 quarts of sifted flour	1 handful of salt
1 handful of sugar	2 small potatoes
1 cake of compressed yeast

Mix flour, sugar and salt. Mash the potatoes in 1 quart of potato water (taken after boiling potatoes for a meal). Dissolve the yeast in a little cold water. Pour warm potato water into the flour mixture; add yeast; mix stiff and knead thoroughly; cover and let rise over night. In the morning knead thoroughly again and form into loaves. Place in well greased pans, and butter the top of loaves also to make the crust moist. Let rise, and bake in an even oven about forty-five minutes. When done remove from pans, rub over the crust with butter, cover carefully with towels or napkins, then wrap well in woolen goods—for instance, an old clean small blanket.

Parker House Rolls

1 quart of flour	1 teaspoonful of salt
1 heaped tablespoonful of sugar	2 tablespoonfuls of butter
	1 pint of boiling milk
$\frac{1}{4}$ ounce of compressed yeast

Measure flour in bread bowl, make a well in the middle, into which put salt, sugar, butter and hot milk. Let stand without stirring until lukewarm, when add the yeast dissolved in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of warm water, stir all together to make a soft batter, still leaving a little flour around the edges, cover closely and set to rise. When very light mix in the rest of the flour in the bowl, together with enough more to make a soft dough; knead well and set to rise again. If there is time after the second rising to cut down with a knife a few times the rolls will be much more delicate. About an hour before tea, roll out with as little flour as possible, to one-half inch thickness, cut out with large biscuit cutter, and spread with melted butter, fold over and place close together in pan. Let them rise until twice their original size. Bake in a hot oven.

 And a cup and a half of white flour.
 Of molasses a cup, and an egg beaten up,
 And one cup of milk that is sour,

 And one of salt, or none would praise it.
 Stir it up well, and four hours steam it,
 And rest assured, all will deem it

Put these onto the bread board and roll down to about one-half inch in thickness. Have the cake griddle greased slightly (the muffins should be pretty well floured), place the muffins on this and put on the back of the range. In a half hour they should be very light and spongy. Draw the griddle forward and bake; turning over whenever the tops begin to round up, so as to keep the cakes flat. It will take fifteen or twenty minutes to bake. The muffins should be about two inches thick and as large as a saucer. Tear apart, toast and serve very hot with butter or syrup. They may be kept a week, toasting whenever wanted for use.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY

No one can entirely solve for someone else, if they ever do for themselves, the difficult problem of household economy, but when it has passed into a proverb, that “A French family can live on what an American family throws away,” it is time for us to give the subject more attention. The economical management of the household is not accomplished without “eternal vigilance” on the part of the mistress, and the woman who delegates to a servant duties that belong to the mistress only, and who does not personally supervise every department of her household, can never hope to be a good manager.

Hoping that they may be found useful, we give the following suggestions, for the care of food and a few ways of utilizing the “left-overs”:

Muffins left from breakfast may be split into halves and toasted for lunch.

Cold mashed potatoes may be saved for croquettes or potato puff. One cupful makes six croquettes.

Small pieces of plain or puff paste trimmed from pies or patties may be used for cheese sticks.

Fat from stock, suet from chops and steaks should be saved, tried out, clarified and strained into the dripping pail for use in frying. It is preferable to lard.

USE Knox's Sparkling Gelatin.

Save every scrap of bread for crumbs to use for breading croquettes, chops, scollop dishes, etc.

It is well to have two kinds of crumbs, using the white ones for the outside of fried articles, as they give a better color. To prepare the crumbs dry them slowly on the shelf of the range. When dry, roll, sift and place them in glass preserve jars until wanted.

When an egg is opened for the white alone, drop the yolk carefully into a cup, cover the cup with a wet cloth, and keep it in the ice box until wanted. When whites are left over make a small angel cake, or cover any dessert with meringue.

Oatmeal, hominy, cracked wheat and other cereals which are left over can be added next day to the fresh supply, for they are improved by long boiling.

Any of the cereals make good pancakes, or a small amount added to the ordinary pancake batter improves it. It can also be moulded and used for fried mush.

Sour milk can be used for cottage cheese, and makes good biscuits or pancakes.

When fruits show signs of deterioration stew them at once instead of letting them decay.

Grate cheese which becomes dry, and use for pies or soup; or it can be served with crackers, or bottled and kept for future use.

Lard is hot when a blue smoke rises from it.

To freshen stale crackers put them into a hot oven for a few minutes.

To prevent flour from lumping, add a little salt before mixing with milk or water.

Chop the tough ends of steak very fine, season and form them into balls or cakes.

Everything good too small to utilize in other ways should be put into the soup kettle—the French woman's stronghold—and should be boiled up, in winter, twice a week, and in summer every day. A spoonful of gravy or rice, any kind of vegetables, the bones from roasts,

TRY Sioux Corn Starch for puddings.

steaks, chops or poultry, the tough end of a steak, the trimmings from roasts, steaks and chops, which will be sent with the meat if asked for, all should go into that invaluable soup kettle, and will give a stock far richer in flavor and more nutritious than if prepared in the usual manner. It will, of course, not do for clear soups, but for thick soups, or tomato, bean or vegetable soups, sauces, minces, scollops, meat pies and the like, it is most excellent.

The coarse stalks and roots of celery make a good vegetable when cut in pieces and boiled, or they make a good cream of celery soup.

The leaves are valuable in the soup kettle for flavor; also are useful for garnishing.

To Clean Currants

Add one cup of flour to every quart of currants and rub them well between the hands. This will free them from stems and stones. Then turn them into a colander and shake until the stems have passed through. Now put them in a pan of cold water, thoroughly drain and wash a number of times. Spread on boards or flat dishes and stand in a warm place to dry.

To Make a Pastry Bag

Fold a piece of very strong muslin (one foot square) from two opposite corners; fell the edges tightly together, thus forming a triangular bag. Cut off the point to make an opening large enough to insert a tin pastry tube. It is better to have two or three pastry bags, each fitting their respective tubes.

To Use the Pastry Bag

Put the tin tubes into the bag and fit it into the opening. Fill the bag with the mixture, close the top of the bag, give it a twist and hold it tightly with the right hand. Put the point of the tube close to the place where the mixture is to be spread; press with the left hand, and guide the mixture into any shape desired. eclaires, lady fingers, etc.

bowl and chop until the butter is in bits the size of small peas. Put the egg into a cup, beat well, add lemon and water enough to make a small half cup. Continue chopping, adding the water gradually, until mixed. No more water than is absolutely necessary should be used, the quantity depending somewhat upon the flour. Turn out onto the board, roll into a thick sheet, roll up and put on the ice if possible, or stand in a cool place, for an hour or so; cut from the end and roll out as desired. This must either be handled as little as possible, or rolled and folded like puff paste. No middle course is possible. Materials, utensils and room should be cold.

To Cook Italian Prunes

There is as much in the preparation of the prunes before cooking as in the quality of the prunes. Whenever this is borne in mind, a nice dish of first class prunes is pleasing to the eye and delicious to the taste. Soak the prunes for twelve hours in water enough to cover them. Put them in this same water over a slow fire to cook, adding a little sugar if not sweet enough for your taste. Let them simmer slowly until well cooked. This slow cooking will expand them more than the water has done, and does not destroy the flavor.

Another way is equally as good. Wash your prunes nicely, as in the first process, put in a porcelain-lined stew pan or kettle, pour over them enough cold water to cover them. Set them on the back of the cooking range, which is supposed to have fire in it, and let them stay there, heating through slowly, until nearly ready to serve. At the last moment bring them forward to the hot portion of the range and let them boil up quickly. Some prefer this method to the first. Slow heat and the soaking process, to make the fruit expand, brings out all the flavor, and is the secret of disfavor or popularity.

Add to the water 1 teaspoonful vanilla sugar, or a tiny bit of vanilla bean, and a half cup of sugar; bring to a boil and skim. Boil two minutes, add prunes; when hot lift carefully and put aside to cool. A tablespoonful of soaked gelatine may be added when the prunes are hot. This will give a creamy, clear sauce. Omelette Soufflé

Will Serve Six or Eight Persons.

Whites of 9 eggs	Yolks of 2 eggs
2 tablespoonfuls powdered sugar	6 macaroons crumbled fine
	1 teaspoonful vanilla

Beat the yolks very light; add the sugar, stirring them together very thoroughly; then add vanilla. Beat the whites very light, and very carefully and lightly add the beaten yolks and sugar, a little at a time. Have ready a cold plate, onto which pile the mixture, a little at a time, but quickly, sprinkling each spoonful with the macaroons. Make the pile high and dome-shaped. Bake in a moderate oven about fifteen minutes.

White and Gold Custard

5 eggs	1 quart new milk
	Sugar, salt, flavoring

Take 1 pint of the milk, the whites of the eggs slightly beaten, about 2 tablespoonfuls of sugar, salt and vanilla; mix and strain into a buttered pudding mould, and bake very carefully. Set the mould into a deep pan of hot water, which should never boil. Test by cutting into the center with a silver knife, as for any custard. Set aside to cool, and it is better made the day before using. Make a soft custard with the yolks of the eggs and the remaining pint of milk, and when thoroughly cold, flavor with vanilla or sherry. Turn the baked custard into a glass dish and pour the soft custard around it.

MRS. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Virginia Caramel Custard

1 quart milk
5 eggs
Flavor rosewater or almond, 1 dessert spoonful

$\frac{1}{2}$ pound sugar
Pinch of salt

Separate the whites from the yolks of the eggs; beat sugar and yolks together, add the well-beaten whites and mix with the milk, flavor and pour into a buttered mould or tin; set immediately into a pan of boiling water in a moderately hot oven. About half an hour will be required to set it firmly. When nicely browned and puffed up touch the middle with a knife blade; if it cuts as smooth there as around the sides, it is done. Be careful not to overdo. Let the custard stand until perfectly cold, turn out gently on a plate, dust thickly with sugar, place in upper part of hot oven. The sugar melts at once and browns without heating the custard.

Croquante of Peaches*Will Serve Eight Persons.*

18 nice ripe peaches 1 pound of sugar
 1 pint of small strawberries $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of water
 The recipe for Charlotte Russe

Boil the sugar and water together until it is brittle when dropped in cold water; that is, when it begins to boil up in large bubbles, take a little of it on a spoon and drop it into cold water; if it snaps in breaking, it is sufficiently boiled. Take it from the fire immediately. Rub a plain two-quart mould with melted butter or oil. Have ready the peaches pared, cut into halves and stoned, the strawberries stemmed. Put a piece of peach on a wooden skewer, dip it in the syrup, then dip a berry in the syrup, and place in the center of the peach where the stone was taken out, then press it against the side of the mould, and so continue until the mould is lined, then stand away in a cold place to harden. When hard, fill with Charlotte Russe, and stand in a cold place for an hour or two. When ready to serve, put a plate over the mould, turn it upside down, wipe the outside of the mould with a warm cloth, then carefully lift it off. This dish is both beautiful and good.

Little Creams of Chestnuts

Drain the syrup from one bottle of German preserved chestnuts; whip 1 pint of cream; put it in a pan; stand this in another of cracked ice; add the syrup, a teaspoonful of vanilla and $\frac{1}{4}$ box of gelatine that has been soaked in $\frac{1}{4}$ cup of water, for half an hour; then dissolve over hot water. Begin at once to stir, and stir till it thickens. Turn into individual moulds, and stand aside to harden, and get very cold. Bake a sheet of sponge cake and when ready to serve the dessert cut into stars or rounds about two inches larger than the moulds; place them on the serving dishes, cover with currant jelly and stand a mould in the center of each. Press the chestnuts through a colander; and cover the creams closely with these pressings. If done carefully they look like long pieces of boiled spaghetti neatly twined around. The remaining quantity may be softened with a little cream, and flavored with vanilla or sherry and poured in the dish as a sauce.

Wine Jelly

Uncooked.

$\frac{1}{2}$ box gelatine	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water
1 pint boiling water	Juice of 1 lemon
1 cup sugar	1 cup sherry wine

Soak the gelatine in the cold water about fifteen minutes or until soft; add the boiling water, lemon juice, sugar and wine. Stir well, strain through a napkin into a shallow dish; keep in a cool place or in ice water until hard. When ready to serve break up lightly with a fork. If you wish to mould it add only $\frac{2}{3}$ of a pint of boiling water.

If you wish to mould fruit into it (candied cherries are especially nice), pour a layer of the jelly into the mould, let it harden, then put in a layer of fruit, then another layer of jelly, and so on until the mould is full. During the process keep the unused jelly where it will remain in a liquid state.

Whites of 2 eggs beaten stiff. Stir into this powdered sugar all it will contain. Blanch some almonds, and chop them fine. Mix with the above. Drop on a buttered pan and bake a light brown.

MRS. M. A. KELLOGG.

Tipsy Cake*Will Serve Ten or Twelve Persons.*

1 dozen lady fingers	1 pint of milk
1 dozen macaroons	3 eggs
1½ dozen blanched almonds	1 teaspoonful of corn starch
½ cup of brandy
½ cup of sherry	3 tablespoonfuls of sugar
½ pint of firm raspberry jam	2 teaspoonfuls of vanilla
½ pint of thick cream to whip	2 tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar

Mix the sherry and brandy, split the lady fingers, dip 12 halves one by one quickly in the liquor and spread them on the bottom of a deep glass dish, completely covering the bottom, in each piece stick half of a blanched almond. Then treat the macaroons in the same way and place a layer of them on the lady fingers and finish with another layer of lady fingers, using almonds in each layer. Make the upper layer of lady fingers very even and spread the raspberry jam smoothly over them.

Make a soft boiled custard thus: Bring the milk to a boil (reserving 2 tablespoonfuls to mix with the corn starch); add the sugar; let boil up again. Stir the corn starch into the 2 tablespoonfuls of milk; stir this into the well beaten eggs and add slowly to the boiling milk. Let it come just to a boil, stirring constantly. Remove from the fire and when cool add 1 teaspoonful of vanilla. When cold put it spoonful by spoonful on the jam, making the top smooth. Set in a cold place for an hour. Have the cream very cold, whip very stiff, put in the powdered sugar and 1 teaspoonful of vanilla and heap on the custard, making a trifle higher in the center. Serve very cold.

MRS. J. MCB. SMITH, Victoria.

To Make a Trifle*For the Whip.*

1 pint of cream	3 ounces of pounded sugar
A small glass of cherry or raisin wine	Whites of 2 eggs

For the Trifle.

A custard made with 8 eggs to a pint of milk
 6 small sponge cakes or 6 slices of sponge cake
 12 macaroons
 2 dozen ratafias
 2 ounces of sweet almonds
 Grated rind of 1 lemon
 A layer of raspberry or strawberry jam
 $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of sherry or sweet wine
 6 tablespoonfuls of brandy

The whip to lay over the top of the trifle should be made the day before it is required, as the flavor is better, and it is much more solid than when prepared the same day.

Put into a large bowl the pounded sugar, the whites of the eggs which should be beaten to a stiff froth, the wine and the cream. Whisk these ingredients well in a cool place, and take off the froth with a skimmer as fast as it rises and put it on a sieve to drain; continue the whisking until there is sufficient of the whip, which must be put away in a cool place to drain.

The next day place the sponge cake, macaroons and ratafias in layers in the trifle dish; pour over them the wine mixed with the brandy, and should the proportion of wine not be found sufficient add a little more, as the cakes should be well soaked. Over the cake put grated lemon rind and sweet almonds, blanched and cut into strips, and a layer of jam.

Make the custard with the eggs and milk; let this cool a little, then pour it over the cake, etc. Heap the whip lightly in a mound over the top and garnish if desired with strips of currant jelly or crystallized sweet meats.

ICE CREAM AND ICES

“I always thought cold victuals nice—
My choice would be vanilla ice.”

—Holmes

Foundations for Ice Cream

The two principal foundations for ice creams are Philadelphia and Neapolitan, and nearly all the principal creams may be made from these by varying the flavoring, with the addition of fruits (fresh, candied or preserved), nuts, small cakes, wines, etc., and by various methods of moulding and combining a bewildering variety of delicious ice creams may be made.

Philadelphia Ice Cream is made with pure cream. To a quart of cream, scalded not boiled, add a cup of sugar; stir till dissolved, add the flavoring, strain and freeze. Or, whip the cream, let stand a few minutes, skim off the whipped part, put sugar and flavoring with the unwhipped part, which has been scalded, and when partly frozen add the whipped cream and finish freezing. This will give a larger quantity when frozen, and it will be very light and delicate. If fruits are to be used it is better to scald the cream, as that will prevent curdling. A quicker way is to use the cream without either scalding or whipping, but the ice cream will not be so rich or delicate.

Neapolitan Ice Cream is made by adding eggs, in the proportion of four to a quart of cream. The cream should be scalded, the eggs thoroughly beaten, separately, the sugar added, then the hot cream and the mixture cooked like soft custard. Or the custard may be made with the yolks alone, and the stiffly beaten whites added when the cream is partly frozen. Flavorings should be added when the custard has cooled.

Vanilla, Lemon, Fruit Creams and Bisque

For vanilla ice cream, add about 2 tablespoonfuls of vanilla extract, according to strength to either of the above foundations.

For lemon ice cream, mix about 2 tablespoonfuls of lemon juice with a half cup of the sugar, stir into the mixture, strain and freeze.

For fruit creams, add about a pint of strained fruit juice, mash a quart of fresh fruit to a pulp, press through a sieve and add to the prepared cream. More or less sugar must be added according to the acidity of the fruit, and in almost all instances the juice of a lemon is an improvement.

For bisque ice cream, add about a cupful of any kind of fine dried sweet crumbs, preferably macaroons, lady fingers or fancy wafers. Flavor the cream with almond, vanilla or caramel, not too strong, and after adding the crumbs a slight flavoring of sherry may be added to advantage.

Mrs. RICHARD C. STEVENS.

Peach, Chocolate, and Baked Apple

For Peach Ice Cream—To a quart of plain ice cream add about a dozen peaches. Mash half of them to a pulp, and cut half of them in quite small pieces. Sweeten to taste and add to the cream.

For Chocolate Ice Cream—To a quart of ice cream use two bars of sweetened chocolate. Melt the chocolate in a little milk or water and add to the cream. Vanilla is the best flavoring with chocolate.

For Baked Apple Ice Cream—To a quart of cream use from 4 to 8 apples, according to size. Bake well and mash through a sieve. Sweeten to taste and add to the cream. This is delicious.

Mrs. WINFIELD R. SMITH.

Caramel Cream No. 1

To 1 quart of boiling milk add a very small piece of butter and 1 cup of burnt sugar, into which 1 good tablespoonful of flour has been mixed smoothly. Boil a moment to thicken and remove from the fire. When perfectly cold, add 3 pints cream, and vanilla to taste, and freeze; if not sweet enough, add plain sugar (too much of the burnt sugar will make it bitter).

A FRENCH DINNER

The bill of fare for dinner parties as ordinarily served in England and the United States is not at all in the French style. It is the French say "à la Russe," though it is common to speak of the course dinner in this country as in the French style.

A true French bill of fare for a family, or for intimate friends is arranged as follows:

ARRANGEMENT OF A DINNER FOR EIGHT PERSONS.

First Service or Course.

Soup. Relève. Entrées, and Hors d'Oeuvres.

Soup, in the middle of the table. As soon as it is served, the soup tureen is to be removed and replaced by the relève, which is generally the garnished soup meat, or other piece of boiled meat.

Two or four entées, four cold hors d'oeuvres. The hors d'oeuvres are put on the table when the cloth is laid.

Second Service or Course.

Roasts. Entremets.

The first course having been removed, the roast is placed in the center, flanked by the entremets.

Third Service or Course.

Dessert, Fruits or Light Pastries.

Entrées are defined as dishes of meat, game, fowl or fish ordinarily served with sauces.

Hors d'oeuvres are such as anchovies, sardines, olives, pickles, etc.

Entremets are composed of warm or cold dishes.

vegetables, fish, creams, cold pastry, eggs in any style, beignets, puddings, or other sugared dishes.

Dessert includes cheese, compotes, fancy cakes, confectionery.

ELEANOR MAKES MACAROONS

Light of triumph in her eyes.
Eleanor her apron ties;
As she pushes back her sleeves,
High resolve her bosom heaves.
Hasten, cook! impel the fire
To the pace of her desire;
As you hope to save your soul,
Bring a virgin casserole,
Brightest bring of silver spoons,—
Eleanor makes macaroons!

Almond-blossoms, now advance
In the smile of Southern France;
Leave your sport with sun and breeze,
Think of duty, not of ease;
Fashion, 'neath their jerkins brown,
Kernels white as thistle-down,
Tiny cheeses made with cream
From the Galaxy's mid-stream,
Blanched in light of honeymoons;—
Eleanor makes macaroons!

Now for sugar,—nay, our plan
Tolerates no work of man.
Hurry, then, ye golden bees;
Fetch your clearest honey, please,
Garnered on a Yorkshire moor,
While the last larks sing and soar,
From the heather-blossoms sweet
Where sea-breeze and sunshine meet,
And the Augusts mask as Junes.—
Eleanor makes macaroons!

Next the pestle and mortar find,
Pure rock-crystal,—these to grind
Into paste more smooth than silk,
Whiter than the milkweed's milk;
Spread it on a rose-leaf thus,
Cate to please Theocritus;
Then the fire with spices swell,
While for her completer spell,
Mystic canticles she croons.—
Eleanor makes macaroons!

HOW TO KEEP HOUSE SUCCESSFULLY WITH ONE SERVANT

The problem of how to get on with one servant at times confronts most housekeepers, and particularly young housekeepers.

To be successful, one must be systematic and must require that the work be done, as near as practicable, at the designated time. However, too much must not be demanded, and, although requiring the table to be always carefully served and the house kept in order, the housekeeper may, by a little attention to details, arrange her work so that on days when it falls heaviest her menus will consist of dishes most easily prepared and served. On such days she may assist materially by dusting and attending to minor matters, which, while not laborious, require considerable time.

In the first place it is essential to provide good utensils, of which by far the most important is a reliable stove or range. The servant should rise at least one and one-half hours before the breakfast, when much of the routine work of the house, such as building the fires, airing the rooms, taking up ashes, etc., can be done.

After the breakfast is cleared away the house should first be put in order and all of the rougher work attended to; after luncheon the lighter and neater work, such as baking, ironing, etc., can be done. This will enable the servant to be more neatly dressed to answer the door when most likely to be summoned; although at all times a fresh white apron must be kept in a convenient place so that it can be easily put on when she is called from the kitchen for any purpose.

Dinner being over, the kitchen should be put in order and arrangements made for the morning's breakfast. After this the servant, as far as practicable when the mistress is at home, should be free to occupy her time as she pleases. The answering of the door may then be done by some member of the family.

The manner of preparing and serving should be as follows: The table should be carefully laid in ample time and always furnished with fresh linen. Require the same care and attention when the family is alone as when guests are present, by doing which, confusion will be avoided if strangers come unexpectedly. Have everything for the proper serving of the meal in readiness and arrange conveniently the dishes required for the various courses. The first course should be placed upon the table and the water glasses filled before the dinner is announced. After serving this, the next course should be prepared for the table and kept warm, if necessary, until the first course has been removed, and each course in its turn in the same manner.

The maid should stand at the left of the host or hostess, who is serving, and take the plate on her tray, placing it from the left, directly in front of each person. Anything, such as bread, vegetables, celery, etc., should be offered from the left in such a position that it may be easily taken.

In removing a course take first the dish from which the host or hostess has been serving and then the plates, removing them from the right, one or two only at a time. Have the crumb knife used as often as required. In serving be careful to avoid unnecessary noise and haste. As the various dishes are removed they should be carefully placed on a table in the kitchen, set aside for that purpose.

Servants will not find it difficult, after a little experience, to do the work of an ordinary household in a systematic manner, having a time for everything as well as a place for everything.

A simple menu, carefully cooked and served, will be found much more appetizing and attractive than an elaborate one poorly cooked and carelessly served.

SANDWICHES

“A crust of bread and liberty.”—Horace.

The secret of a sandwich is entirely in the manipulation. Given good bread and good butter, and the rest is largely a matter of patience. The bread must be delicately thin and crustless, the butter must be soft and evenly spread, cheese must be finely grated, and meat or fish chopped or pounded to a paste. The best bread is bakers' water bread a day old, though the loaf must not be cut before using. Brown bread being much more moist, may be used on the day of baking. Sandwiches should never be made long before serving. If, however, they must stand any length of time, their freshness is insured by wrapping them in a thick brown paper, over which a doubled napkin wrung out in cold water is folded, and setting them in a cold place.—Harper's Bazaar.

Cheese Sandwiches

Mix cheese (Deilcatesse or Club House) with mayonnaise or prepared mustard, and with some hard-boiled eggs chopped exceedingly fine. Put this mixture into a mortar and rub together into a paste. Spread on buttered squares of bread, or thin crackers, or best of all, thin slices of buttered toast.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Walnut Sandwiches

1 pound English walnuts, cut kernels in small pieces; cover with a nice mayonnaise dressing. Cut bread in fancy shapes, round, square or triangular, and spread with mixture. Set in cool place till nearly ready to serve.

MRS. V. A. RITON.

Sardine Sandwiches

Chop the sardines very fine, and mix with Worcestershire sauce, or with mayonnaise dressing. Spread on small squares of thin bread and butter.

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

Peanut Sandwiches

Mash peanuts in a mortar to a paste, or chop as fine as possible. Thoroughly mix with Worcestershire sauce; spread on thin slices of bread and butter cut small. A good "appetizer" and nice to serve at "5 o'clock tea."

MRS. NATHANIEL WALDO EMERSON, Boston.

SUGGESTIONS FOR A CHRISTMAS DINNER

“And care—well may she come at most like Christmas—once a year.”

	Oyster Cocktail
	Spinach Soup
Celery	Lobster Baskets	Radishes
Roast Turkey		Cranberry Jelly
Moulded Potato		Asparagus
	Tomato Jelly Salad
Olives	Plum Pudding	Cheese Crackers
	Mince Pie
Ice Cream		Cake
Bon-Bons		Coffee

If spinach cannot be obtained, a green soup can be made from canned peas; and canned lobster, asparagus and tomatoes could be used for the other courses. Have red bon-bons in the dishes, and cut the cranberry jelly with a small heart-shaped cutter and serve individually. Frost the small cakes with red frosting (colored with beet juice), and have strawberry and pistachio ice cream. Use a center-piece embroidered in holly, or lay small twigs of holly with the berries on, to simulate a centerpiece. In the center of the table place a mock Christmas tree about a foot high. It is convenient to put it in a flower-pot of earth. Put the smallest-size toy red candles and tiny red glass balls on the tree. Around the pot put cotton patting, pulled out fleecy and soft; tie it on with red ribbon, and sprinkle with diamond powder until it glistens like frost. Tie bows of red ribbon wherever possible in the room—for instance, around potted plants. If one has electric light, wind the chandelier with cotton batting, sprinkle with diamond powder, and decorate with the bows and holly twigs or green vines trailing down to the table. With gas it might be dangerous to use the cotton batting, but the ribbon and vines are a pretty combination. If one has silver candleabra use red candles in them and tie with red ribbon. For name cards have Christmas cards, and if desired, small souvenirs of the dinner may be hung on the dwarf tree.

PRESERVES, PICKLES, ETC

“Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.”

Canning

Have the jars and tops in hot water, and the rubbers in cold water. Cook only enough syrup at one time for one can, and by using two kettles no time is lost by having the syrup for the second can, cooking in one kettle, while the fruit for the first can cooks in the other.

For small fruits make a thin syrup of 1 cup of sugar to 1 cup of water to each can; put in enough fruit for the one can, allow it just to come to a boil, pour into the can and seal at once. Be sure the can is brimming full. If the syrup was a little short fill the can with boiling water.

For large fruits make a syrup of 1½ cups of sugar to 1 cup of water. When it boils put in the fruit and let it cook until nearly tender. Seal quickly.

In the evening screw the tops as tight as possible and again in the morning; then set in a cool dark place.

If large cans are used proportionately more syrup must be made.

Canned Peaches

Make a syrup of 1 pint of sugar and ½ pint of water to a quart of fruit. Boil syrup till clear, skimming carefully; put in the fruit, cook till tender and seal at once.

MRS. F. W. PARKER.

Tutti Frutti

Put in a two-gallon jar, 1 quart of brandy and 3 pounds of granulated sugar. As various kinds of fruit are obtained, add 1 pound of sugar for each pound of fruit. Begin with strawberries, cherries stoned, bananas, pineapple cut in pieces, etc. Keep in a cool place and stir every few days until the last of the fruit has been added. The quantity of brandy and sugar mentioned at first will bear seven or eight pounds each of fruit and extra sugar. Put in small cans or jars, or cover with a paper wet in brandy and tie a second paper over the first. This is an easy way to preserve fruit so that it will retain its natural flavor, and is delicious for tutti frutti ice cream, or for jellies or sauces.

Preserves

Pears, quinces and clingstone peaches should be first cooked in clear water until almost tender. Drain and add $\frac{3}{4}$ pound of sugar and $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of water (in which fruit was cooked) to each pound of fruit. After skimming add fruit a little at a time to avoid crushing, and cook till clear. When all is cooked boil the syrup down and seal. If the fruit is not to be sealed use a pound instead of $\frac{3}{4}$ of a pound of sugar to each pound of fruit. Care should be taken to skim the syrup frequently, to keep clear.

MRS. F. W. PARKER.

Strawberry Preserves

$\frac{3}{4}$ pound of sugar and $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of water to each pound of fruit. Put part of the sugar over the berries at night; in the morning drain, add the remainder of the sugar and boil until quite thick; add the fruit and cook until clear. Seal when hot. Or make the syrup with the water; add the fruit and cook.

MRS. F. W. PARKER.

Currant Jelly

Pick over, but do not stem, the currants. Mash them a little; add a cup of water if necessary to keep them from burning, and cook gently (do not let them boil) until they look ragged. Put in a bag made of two thicknesses of cheesecloth and let them drip over night. Next morning strain the juice thus obtained, measure it and weigh the sugar—a pound of sugar for every pint of juice. While the juice is heating put the sugar in shallow dishes and set in the oven, stirring occasionally. Boil the juice just ten minutes, simmering until clear; then put in gradually the hot sugar and stir constantly until it is dissolved. As soon as it comes to a boil again remove from the fire and pour into glasses. When cold lay neatly-fitted rounds of white paper, dipped in brandy, next the jelly, taking care to exclude the air bubbles and to entirely cover it. Then paste paper covers over the tops of the cups. The currants are better for being very ripe. A clear day is preferable for jelly-making. Many people like a little raspberry juice mixed with the currant juice.

MRS. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

Crabapple Jelly

A sprig of rose geranium dipped in the crabapple jelly just before putting into glasses gives a pleasant flavor.

MRS. T. M. DAULTON.

Orange Marmalade No. 1

12 oranges (medium size)	2 quarts water
2 lemons	9 pounds sugar

Wash the oranges clean, wipe dry and cut in thin slices (just as you would slice potatoes for frying), using peel and pulp but rejecting the seeds. Pour over them 2 quarts of cold water and boil until very tender (about an hour and half); add 9 pounds of sugar and boil an hour or a little longer.

MISS MALTBY.

Orange Marmalade No. 2

Take the juice and pulp of 12 oranges; add the grated rind of 6; put equal weight of sugar and oranges together and boil slowly to the consistency of a thick syrup. If the bitter taste is preferred, the rind of 6 oranges may be sliced in extremely thin strips and boiled until tender, changing the water several times, and then added to the boiling fruit about ten minutes before it is taken from the stove. Bottle while very hot.

Mrs. BANGS.

Crystalized Orange Peel

Nice as a Confection for Teas, Receptions, Etc.

Cut oranges lengthwise, take out pulp and most of the white part. Put into a strong solution of salt and water for six days; then boil them in a quantity of water till tender and drain. Make a thin syrup of sugar and water (a pound of sugar to a quart of water); put in the peel and boil one-half hour, or until it looks clear. Have ready a thick syrup of sugar and just water enough to dissolve it; put in the rinds and boil slowly until you see the syrup candy about them. Take them out and roll one by one in granulated sugar.

Mrs. GEORGE OSGOOD, Tacoma.

Pickled Peaches or Pears

Prepare a syrup in proportion of:

3 pounds sugar	1 pint vinegar
1 tablespoonful each of	4 tablespoonfuls cinnamon
whole and ground cloves

to each gallon of fruit. Boil sugar, vinegar and spices five minutes. Pare the fruit, cut in halves and core. Put part at a time into the syrup and cook till a silver fork will pierce it easily. Skim out the fruit and put in a stone jar. When all the fruit is cooked, boil the syrup ten minutes longer and pour over all. In the morning drain off the syrup and cook fifteen minutes and pour over the fruit again. Repeat three mornings. The third morning thoroughly heat the fruit and boil the syrup till like maple syrup; pour over the fruit; tie the covers down with cloth; not necessary to seal.

Mrs. F. W. PARKER.

Stew and strain the tomatoes, then cook again till thick. When about half thick enough add spices tied loosely in a thin muslin bag; also 1 tablespoonful of sugar, 1 cup of strong vinegar, and salt to taste. If onions are liked they should be put in while stewing. Mrs. S. W. CLARK.

Is better than any soap; handier, finer, more effective, more of it, more for the money, and in the form of a powder for your convenience. Takes, as it were, the fabric in one hand, the dirt in the other, and lays them apart—comparatively speaking, washing with little work.

As it saves the worst of the work, so it saves the worst of the wear. It isn't the use of clothes that makes them old before their time; it is rubbing and straining, getting the dirt out by main strength.

For scrubbing, house-cleaning, washing dishes, windows and glassware, Pearlina has no equal.

Beware of imitations, prize packages and peddlers.

“A wilderness of sweets.”

Fondant

1 pint granulated sugar $\frac{1}{2}$ pint (scant) cold water

Mix well together, and put on to boil, being careful not to disturb until done. (Never stir it.) After ten minutes of boiling, gently try it with a fork and if it hairs, keep close watch of it, trying it in cold water until it forms a soft ball. Remove quickly from the stove, pour into an earthen bowl and set away to cool. At blood heat, a thin icing will have formed on the top, which should be gently lifted off with a wide-tined fork, in order that not a bit remain, and none of the syrup be wasted. When this is done beat hard with a fork until stiff; then take in the hands and work until smooth and creamy, not a grain should remain. This will keep for weeks in a cool place. If a quantity of fondant be made the skimmings may all be boiled over with the addition of a little water.

To insure success in making, close watch must be kept during the boiling, and quick judgment used as to the time for removing from the fire. Boiling sugar is full of whims, and is better than any barometer in forecasting the weather. Therefore watch it! On a windy day the syrup is likely to grain; on a damp dry it may take much longer to boil, and may even refuse to stiffen, and will need a second boiling.

These minute directions may discourage some from attempting fondant, but with a little practice one soon learns to avoid "breakers," and becomes fascinated with the infinite possibilities for variety. Individual ingenuity will devise new kinds, so we give but a few which have already been tested.

Peppermints or Wintergreens

Take a portion of the fondant and melt again by putting it into a small bowl set in boiling water. When melted flavor with 1 or 2 drops of oil of peppermint and drop on paraffine paper. For wintergreens use oil of wintergreen and color a delicate pink.

Orange Creams

Grated rind of 1 orange 1 tablespoonful juice
Confectioners' sugar to stiffen

Roll into small balls and dip into fondant melted as for peppermints. If the fondant stiffen again with the continued heat, add a drop or two of boiling water. Use a wide-tined fork for dipping in order that the surplus fondant may fall back into the bowl. It will harden almost at once on the paraffine paper. Variety of form and color is desirable, so we suggest that these creams be made round and small, giving the coating a tint of orange.

Lemon Creams are made the same way, using lemon in place of orange. These may be moulded into oblong pieces.

Cocoanut Cream

Mix shredded cocoanut into some fondant and flavor with vanilla. Form into cones, dip in fondant and sprinkle with cocoanut.

For Fig Creams use chopped figs in place of cocoanut.

Nut Creams are made by using chopped nuts in place of cocoanut; flavor with almond, color green. Chopped citron, raisins, dates, raspberry jam or chocolate may be used instead.

MRS. CALVIN E. VILAS.

French Fondant

White of 1 egg and equal amount of cold water beaten briskly, 1 teaspoonful of vanilla (or any preferred flavoring) and sufficient confectioners' sugar to make it stiff enough to form into balls. Before it is quite stiff it can be divided and the various portions flavored and colored according to fancy. Those balls to be covered with chocolate should stand several hours before covering. We have found vanilla or pineapple better for walnut creams; vanilla with figs or dates. A mixture of flavorings is very nice, such as lemon and cinnamon.

Flavorings and coloring can be varied according to taste. Candied fruits cut in small pieces may be encased in the fondant or used on top of ball.

The fruit colorings are preferable and can be obtained at a grocers.

French fondant is the simplest way of making candy, but we much prefer the cooked fondant, made as above.

Chocolate Fondant for Dipping

Add 2 tablespoonfuls of grated chocolate to about 1 pound of fondant; melt the chocolate and stir the fondant into it. Nut balls and fig balls dipped in this are delicious.

Walnut Creams

Cook some fondant, flavor with pineapple or vanilla, make into balls and put half a walnut on the top.

Date Creams

Remove the stones and fill with fondant.

Stuffed Dates

Remove the stones; have ready blanched walnuts. If you leave the nuts in halves use two dates to one piece, place one date on each side of the nut and pinch together, completely covering the nut, or use one-quarter of a walnut and but one date. Roll in granulated sugar.

Mrs. WINFIELD R. SMITH.

Put sugar and water in a kettle on the back of the stove until the sugar is dissolved; then set the kettle over the fire and add the milk and the chocolate. Cook until you can make a soft ball in water. It will need to boil about fifteen minutes. Add the butter a few minutes before it is done, and the last thing add the vanilla. Pour into a buttered pan to cool. When cool but not cold beat vigorously with a fork until it is stiff enough to cut into squares. If this is cooked too much it will be sugary and hard.

MRS. WINFIELD R. SMITH.

Pinochee

3 cups finest light brown sugar	1 cup of cream
1 tablespoonful vanilla	Butter size of walnut
	1 cup walnuts, broken a little

Boil sugar, cream and butter about twenty minutes until when it is dropped in a cup of cold water it can be gathered into a ball, soft but not sticky, then remove from fire and add vanilla. Put the kettle of candy into a pan of cold water and stir until it begins to grain; stir in the nuts and pour quickly into buttered pans. Cut into squares when cold. If it is stirred too long it will be too hard to mould in the pans; if on the other hand, it has been poured into the pans too soon, before it is sugared, if a fork is run through it in the pans for a few moments, it will help it grain. Milk can be used by adding more butter, but it is not as good, as the candy will not be as creamy. When the candy is on the stove do not stir at first, and only enough at the last to keep from burning.

MISS BOYER, Walla Walla, Wash.

Maple sugar may be used in place of brown sugar, by melting it first in a very little water, then use a little less butter, as it is rather rich, but is delicious.

Nut Candy

2 cups granulated sugar	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup water
$\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoonful cream tartar	1 pound nuts

Boil sugar and water without stirring until it forms soft ball. When cool stir until it creams, flavor and add nuts. Drop on waxed paper.

MRS. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

Molasses Nut Candy

1 cup granulated sugar	4 tablespoonfuls molasses
4 tablespoonfuls water	4 tablespoonfuls vinegar
Butter size of an egg	1 pound nuts

Boil all together, except nuts, until it makes a soft ball in water. Take from fire and add nuts. Pour on buttered plates. Score before it hardens.

MRS. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

Molasses Taffy

2 cups brown sugar	1 cup molasses
1 tablespoonful vinegar	$\frac{3}{8}$ cup water

Boil until it makes a crisp ball in cold water. Stir in $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of soda. Pour on buttered plates to cool, then pull.

Pulled Sugar Candy

4 cups sugar	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup vinegar
$\frac{1}{2}$ cup water	3 tablespoonfuls cream

Boil without stirring over a quick fire; when it begins to rope from the spoon drop a small quantity into a cup of cold water; if it hardens it is ready to be poured upon a buttered dish. Flavor with vanilla. Begin to pull as soon as it can be handled, using only the fingers.

MRS. THOMAS GREEN.

Chocolate Caramels

2 pints brown sugar	1 $\frac{1}{2}$ squares bakers' chocolate
1 cup new milk	Butter size of a walnut

Boil quickly, stirring all the time. Just before removing from the fire add vanilla. Try in cold water; if brittle, it is done. Pour in buttered tins to cool. When nearly cold mark in squares.

THE SICK ROOM

A few strong instincts and a few plain rules.

Recipes for Invalid Cooking

Beef Tea—Free a pound of lean beef from fat, tendon, cartilage, bone and vessels; chop up fine; put into a pint of cold water to digest two hours. Simmer on range or stove three hours, but do not boil. Make up for water lost by adding cold water, so that a pint of beef tea represents one pound of beef. Press beef carefully and strain.

Beef Juice—Cut a thin, juicy steak into pieces one and one-half inches square; brown separately one and one-half minutes on each side before a hot fire; squeeze, in a hot lemon-squeezer; flavor with salt and pepper. May add to milk or pour on toast.

Mutton Broth—Lean loin of mutton, $1\frac{1}{2}$ pounds, including bone; water 3 pints. Boil gently till tender, throwing in a little salt and onion according to taste. Pour out broth into basin; when cold skim off fat. Warm up as wanted.

Chicken Broth—Skin and chop up small a small chicken or half of a large fowl. Boil it, bones and all, with a blade of mace, a sprig of parsley, 1 tablespoonful of rice, and a crust of bread, in a quart of water, for an hour, skimming it from time to time. Strain through a coarse colander.

Clam Broth—Wash thoroughly 6 large clams in shell; put in kettle with 1 cup of water; bring to boil and keep there one minute; the shells open, the water takes up the proper quantity of juice, and the broth is ready to pour off and serve hot.

Cream Soup—Take 1 quart of good stock (mutton or veal), cut 1 onion into quarters, slice 3 potatoes very thin, and put them into the stock with a small piece of mace; boil gently for an hour; then strain out the onion and mace; the potatoes should by this time have dissolved in the stock. Add 1 pint of milk, mixed with a very little corn flour to make it about as thick as cream. A little butter improves it. This soup may be made with milk instead of stock, if a little cream is used.

Apple Soup—Two cups of apple, 2 cups of water, 2 teaspoonfuls of corn starch, $1\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoonfuls of sugar, 1 saltspoonful of cinnamon and a bit of salt. Stew the apple into the water until it is very soft, then mix together into a smooth paste the corn starch, sugar, salt and cinnamon with a little cold water; pour this into the apple and boil for five minutes; strain it and keep it hot until ready to serve.

Raw Meat Diet—Scrape pulp from a good steak, season to taste, smear on thin slices of bread; sear bread slightly and serve as sandwich.

Nutritious Coffee—Dissolve a little gelatine in water, put $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce of freshly-ground coffee into saucepan with 1 pint of new milk, which should be nearly boiling before the coffee is added; boil both together for three minutes; clear it by pouring some of it into a cup and dashing it back again; add the gelatine, and leave it to settle for a few minutes. Beat up an egg in a breakfast cup and pour the coffee upon it; if preferred, drink without the egg.

Rum Punch—White sugar 2 teaspoonfuls, 1 egg stirred and beaten up; warm milk, large wineglassful; Jamaica rum, 2 to 4 teaspoonfuls; nutmeg.

HILL'S Maple Syrup. "Genuine."

Champagne Whey—Boil $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of milk, strain through cheese cloth; add 1 wineglass of champagne.

Toast Water—Toast 3 slices stale bread to dark brown, but do not burn. Put into pitcher, pour over them 1 quart of boiling water; cover closely and let stand on ice until cold; strain. May add wine and sugar.

Rice Water—Pick over and wash 2 tablespoonfuls of rice. Put into granite saucepan with 1 quart of boiling water; simmer two hours, when rice should be softened and partially dissolved; strain, add 1 saltspoonful of salt; serve warm or cold. May add sherry or port, 2 table-spoonfuls.

Barley Water—Wash 2 ounces (wineglassful) of pearl barley with cold water; boil five minutes in fresh water; throw both waters away. Pour on 2 quarts of boiling water; boil down to 1 quart. Flavor with thinly-cut lemon rind, add sugar to taste. Do not strain unless at patient's request.

Koumiss—Take ordinary beer bottle with shifting cork; put in 1 pint of milk 1-6 cake of Fleischmann's yeast, or 1 tablespoonful of fresh lager beer yeast (brewer's), $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoonful of white sugar reduced to syrup; shake well and allow to stand in refrigerator two or three days, when it may be used. It will keep there indefinitely if laid on its side. Much waste can be saved by preparing the bottles with ordinary corks wired in position and drawing off the koumiss with a champagne tap.

Wine Whey—Put 2 pints of new milk in a saucepan and stir over a clear fire until nearly boiling; then add 1 gill (2 wineglassfuls) of sherry and simmer a quarter of an hour, skimming off curd as it rises. Add 1 table-spoonful more sherry, and skim again, for a few minutes; strain through coarse muslin. May use 2 table-spoonfuls lemon juice instead of wine.

Junket—Take $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of fresh milk, heated lukewarm.

and 1 teaspoonful essence of pepsin and stir just enough to mix. Pour into custard cups, let stand until firmly curded; serve plain or with sugar and grated nutmeg. May add sherry.

Baked Flour Porridge—Take 1 pint of flour and pack tightly in a small muslin bag; throw into boiling water and boil five or six hours; cut off the outer sodden portion, grate the hard core fine; blend thoroughly with a little milk and stir into boiling milk to the desired thickness.

Rice Jelly—Mix 1 heaping tablespoonful of rice with cold water until it is in a smooth paste; add 1 scant pint of boiling water, sweeten with loaf sugar; boil until quite clear. Flavor with lemon juice.

Egg-Nog—1 egg, 1 tablespoonful of brandy, 1 tablespoonful of sugar, scant $\frac{1}{2}$ glass of milk. Beat the white and yolk of the egg separately; put brandy, sugar and milk in a glass and stir thoroughly, then add the beaten eggs and serve.

Rye Coffee

When one is not allowed coffee or tea a good substitute can be made by browning rye as coffee is browned; then to 1 cup of rye add 1 cup of cold water. Let it boil slowly for ten minutes, then add 2 cups of boiling water and serve with sugar and cream.

Egg Broth

Beat an egg up high in a broth basin; when quite frothy stir into it $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of good mutton or veal broth, quite hot, a little salt and serve with toast.

Tapioca

Cook over night 2 tablespoonfuls of tapioca in 2 cups of water. In the morning add 1 pint of milk, sugar to taste and a pinch of salt; simmer until soft, stirring frequently. When dished add 1 tablespoonful of wine and grate over a little nutmeg.

MRS. A. J. FISKEN.

Take from the fire and when cold add the well beaten white of an egg, sugar and flavoring (lemon, wine or brandy) and pour into a mould to set. Serve with a custard made with $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of milk, the yolk of the egg, sugar and flavoring.

MRS. SILLITOE.

Crackers and Cream

A nicely toasted cracker, with sweet cream poured over it, is delicate and nourishing for an invalid.

MRS. A. J. FISKEN.

Iced Egg

Beat very light the yolk of 1 egg, with a tablespoonful of sugar; stir in tumblerful of very finely crushed ice; add a tablespoonful of brandy and a little grated nutmeg. Beat together and drink immediately.

MRS. A. J. FISKEN.

Beef Tea

Take 2 pounds of lean beef and cut up in pieces half an inch long. Put in a double boiler and cover with cold water for half an hour; then press with potato masher; add a pinch of salt and cook for two hours in the double boiler.

MISS MURRAY.

Chicken Jelly

Clean and disjoint a chicken, removing all the fat and cut the meat into small pieces; break the bones; lay the feet in boiling water; then remove the skin and nails. Put the meat, bones and feet into a granite saucepan, cover with cold water, heat gradually and simmer till the meat is tender; strain and when cold remove the fat; add salt, pepper, lemon juice and the shell and white of an egg. Put it on the stove, stirring well till hot. Boil five minutes, skim and pour it through a fine cloth. Set aside in a mould. Turn out and garnish and serve with thin slices of bread and butter.

Mrs. PETERS.

Panada for a New-Born Infant

Take $\frac{1}{2}$ a soda cracker or 2 tiny oyster crackers, roll them as finely as possible; add a bit of butter the size of a pea, sweeten to taste; add a bit of nutmeg. Set this upon the stove and add $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of boiling water and stir until it forms a complete jelly. After a babe is two months old the butter may be omitted and 2 spoonfuls of thick cream added while it is warm. This is the recipe of a celebrated physician of Albany, N. Y., and is much better than cows' milk for a young infant.

Mrs. RIPLEY.

Panada

Boil 1 tablespoonful of cracker crumbs five minutes in 1 cup of boiling water, slightly sweetened, salted and flavored with lemon.

Food for Infants

Dissolve a pinch of Cox's gelatine in enough cold water to cover it, then pour over it $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of boiling water; mix to a paste with a little milk, 1 teaspoonful of arrowroot, 1 teaspoonful of granulated sugar and a little salt. Add this to the water and gelatine; then add sufficient milk to make a pint in all. Put it over the fire and let it come to a good boil, stirring often. It is then ready for use. To improve this add 1 teaspoonful of cream. The proportion of milk may be increased, also the cream to 2 tablespoonfuls as the child grows older. This food is very easily digested and is particularly good for a baby whose digestive organs are weak.

Mrs. PETERS.

Mustard Plaster

Mix with boiling water, vinegar or white of an egg to the same consistency as when prepared for table use. If too strong, add a little flour. Spread one half of a thin muslin cloth with the prepared mustard and cover the mustard with the other half of the cloth, or put mustard on cloth and put over it a thin piece of gauze. Apply, and when removed wash the skin with a soft sponge and apply a little sweet cream or oil to the skin.

Mustard Poultice

Take 8 teaspoonfuls of flaxseed meal, flour or corn meal, 1 teaspoonful of mustard; pour on boiling water until it is of the consistency of mush; spread on cloth the same as in mustard plaster recipe, and moisten the side of the cloth next to the skin and apply warm.

Soda Mint

In 2 quarts of warm water dissolve $\frac{1}{4}$ pound of bicarbonate of soda. When cold, add $\frac{1}{2}$ large tablespoonful of essence of peppermint. Cook tightly. Good for indigestion.

Cough Mixture No. 1

An English physician's prescription for a cough or weak lungs:

2 ounces honey	2 ounces cod liver oil
	Juice of 2 lemons

Put altogether in a bottle and shake until thoroughly mixed. Take 1 tablespoonful directly after meals. It is an excellent remedy if persevered with.

MRS. M. P. ZINDORF.

Cough Mixture No. 2

2 ounces juniper berries	2 sticks licorice
3 grains opium	1 pint New Orleans molasses
1 pint water

Put all but the opium in a granite vessel and let it

simmer half the day on the back of the stove. Strain off the liquor, add the opium, boil up once and bottle. The opium is to scotch the irritation of the throat.

Mrs. DOUGLAS YOUNG (from an old sea captain).

For insomnia, a glass of very hot milk has a most soothing effect.

For burns, use a cream made of lime water and olive oil. Place the oil in a bowl and add the lime water gradually, beating with a silver fork all the time. This will make a cream which is very cooling.

Stings of insects may be relieved by the application of ammonia or common table salt, well rubbed in.

For Cold in the Head—When you first feel the cold coming on, put a teaspoonful of sugar in a glass, pour upon it six drops of camphor, stir and fill the glass half full of warm water. Stir this until the sugar is dissolved, then take a dessert spoonful every twenty minutes until relieved. This remedy is good if carefully followed.

Allow 1 large tablespoonful of coffee to 1 cup. Put the coffee in the pot and first cover with cold water; stand over the fire until it comes to a boil, then move back on the stove where it will just keep below the boiling point. Sweeten to taste, usually about 1 teaspoonful of sugar to a cup of cocoa, just before removing, and when it is taken off the fire flavor with a little vanilla. This is improved by serving with whipped cream.

Rub over it a mixture of 1 teaspoonful of saltpetre and 1 tablespoonful of sugar; then rub 1 large handful of salt very thoroughly into each side of it, getting into all the creases. MRS. M. F. BACKUS.

How to Wash Blankets

Use warm (not hot) water and add to each gallon a tablespoonful of ammonia and the same quantity of powdered borax. Put the blankets in and rub through the hands and rinse up and down. Wring by hand. Prepare another tub of water of the same temperature in the same way, using a little less ammonia and borax; the last tub (and three are usually required) need not contain any and ought to look entirely clean when the blankets come out. Choose a bright day.

Mrs. CHARLES E. SHEPARD.

MRS. H. C. HENRY.

To Remove Stains

Take an ounce of hartshorn and one of salts of tartar; mix them well; add a pint of soft water and bottle for use. Keep very tightly corked always. To use, pour a little of the liquid in a saucer and wash in it white articles which are stained with ink, mildew, fruit or wine. MRS. CURTIS.

$\frac{1}{2}$ box of gelatine will make 1 quart of jelly. The quart, however, must include the water used in soaking and dissolving the gelatine. Always soak gelatine in cold water until perfectly soft, then pour boiling water upon it to dissolve it. Granulated gelatine dissolves very rapidly and needs but a few moments to soften it. On $\frac{1}{2}$ box of gelatine put $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water to soften it, and from $\frac{1}{2}$ cup to 1 cup of boiling water to dissolve it.

To take the taste of onion from knives, etc., slice up a raw potato.

Cornstarch is a good substitute for eggs in cookies and doughnuts. One tablespoonful is equal to an egg.

A very good substitute for cream in coffee may be made by pouring 1 cup of scalded milk onto a beaten egg and adding a bit of butter size of a pea.

To Take Grease From Cloth—Make a paste of Fuller's earth and turpentine. Rub on fabric until turpentine evaporates and a white powder remains. The latter can be brushed off, and the grease will have disappeared.

To keep glass jars from breaking when pouring in boiling fruit, wrap a cold wet cloth around the jar.

To remove tar or pitch, rub well with clean lard, afterwards wash with soap and warm water. For either hands or clothing.

In making corn bread always have the bowl you mix it in hot.

To keep fruit from raising to the top of the jar, cook in a thick syrup and lay the can on its side.

If a clove of garlic is kept in salad oil, it will give the hint of garlic desirable in salad, and keep the oil from getting rancid.—Mrs. T. M. Daulton.

A little salt rubbed on a discolored eggspoon will remove the stains.

To take out fruit stains, stretch the stained part over a bowl and pour on boiling water.

Clean white ivory knife handles or white marble with damp salt.

Clean the outside of windows in cold weather with kerosene.

For new windows use alcohol; it cuts the putty and oil.

Put a few drops of ammonia on a moist cloth to clean windows. Vinegar is also good for the same purpose.

One lemon is usually equal to two tablespoonfuls of juice.

Spinach is the proper accompaniment to veal.

Lemon juice makes a very grateful addition to nearly all the insipid members of the fish kingdom. Slices of lemon cut into very small dice and stirred into drawn butter and allowed to come to the boiling point, forms a very nice sauce to serve with fowls.

Serve cranberry sherbet with roast turkey.

Who Shall Be First

There are different opinions regarding the propriety of serving first the most distinguished guest—the lady at the right of the host or the hostess herself. The custom of serving the hostess first which obtains so largely has its origin far back in the olden times when poisoning was much in vogue and it was deemed wiser and safer to observe whether the hostess partook of a dish before one tasted it oneself.

MRS. D. C. GARRETT.

The Expert Waitress says: There are good reasons for serving the lady of the house first, although this rule is often waived to do honor to the distinguished guest for whom luncheon or dinner is given. In a country house several distinguished guests or dear friends are entertained at one time; to serve the hostess first and follow a regular order along the table makes no distinction. Novelties are often introduced, both in food and in service. Dishes are served before which a guest hesitates as to which fork or which spoon to use until he glances at his hostess to see which one she takes up. * * * A hostess who takes pride in having her forks made to suit special courses, like asparagus, and who has several forks laid by each plate before dinner is served, finds it necessary to take up the right one before her guests make a choice. I have in mind a dinner where the hostess delayed the tasting of a course, the absent-minded host took the wrong fork, some guests took one and some another. The butler did his best to replace the right ones; but after all his efforts, somebody had a wrong fork to the end of the dinner.

HILL'S Maple Sugar for Frostings.

Waffles

5 eggs
1½ pints new milk
1 quart flour
3 tablespoonfuls yeast
2 teaspoonfuls salt

Beat the eggs very light, add the flour and the milk and yeast; set to rise over night. In the morning stir them down with a spoon just as you are ready to bake them. They are better baked in the oven than in waffle irons.

1 tablespoonful butter	Onion to taste
1 teaspoonful flour	1 cup milk

Make a roux by browning flour in hot lard in soup kettle; then fry the onion; then the oysters previously drained; add 2 quarts boiling water, including the oyster liquid; then the butter, season to taste and boil twenty minutes. At the last add small teacup of milk to color the soup.

MRS. A. B. ALLAIN.

Jambalaya

Take any cold meat, fowl preferred, chop rather fine, add same quantity of cooked rice, a little onion, 1 tablespoonful of butter, season highly with cayenne, and fry in hot lard or butter.

MRS. A. B. ALLAIN.

Nut Jelly Salad

In a saucepan put 3 cupfuls of English walnut meats, 2 slices of onion, 1 teaspoonful of salt, 2 blades of mace, 2 bay leaves. Cover with boiling water, and boil ten minutes, drain and drop into ice water until needed. Then dry thoroughly in a towel and with a sharp knife cut (not chop) each nut into several pieces and add enough mayonnaise to mix well together.

In a clean saucepan put 1 quart of boiling water, 4 cloves, 2 blades of mace, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of celery seed, 1 slice of onion, 1 bay leaf, 4 slices of carrot, 2 slices of turnip, 2 teaspoonfuls of beef extract and simmer gently for thirty minutes. Season to taste, add $\frac{2}{3}$ box of gelatine, which has been soaked in water, and stir till dissolved. Strain very carefully and add 4 tablespoonfuls of tarragon vinegar. Have ready a dozen medium sized timbale moulds dipped in cold water. Pour into them the aspic and put away until set. Then scoop out the center of each and fill with the nut mixture. Put the fragments of jelly where they will melt without heating, and when liquid put a little over the top of each mould. Keep on ice until ready to use, then turn out and serve on lettuce leaves, garnishing with mayonnaise and paprika.—From Table Talk.

Walnut Salad

Shell $\frac{1}{2}$ pound of English walnuts, throw them into boiling water and remove the skin, then put them into stock, add 1 slice of onion, 1 bay leaf and cook for twenty minutes; a few almond nuts may be added and a handful of pine nuts. Mix these with 2 chopped apples and mayonnaise dressing and serve on lettuce leaves. Bits of cold boiled chicken may also be mixed with the mayonnaise and apples. Pare and core the apples and cut them into dice.

MRS. S. T. RORER and THE HOUSEHOLD NEWS.

Chestnut and English Walnut Salad

Prepare the walnuts as for walnut salad. Have the chestnuts shelled and blanched; boil till they are soft and tender. Mix the walnuts and chestnuts together, pour over a French dressing and serve on lettuce leaves. Celery may be cut into small pieces and mixed with them. Apples may be used instead of the celery; garnish with mayonnaise.

sage, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful black pepper and $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful red pepper. Mix all together thoroughly. Cut cloth for bags eight inches wide and two or three feet long; press the meat in as solidly as possible.

MRS. STROUT.

Creamed Chicken

1 chicken, about 3 pounds	$1\frac{1}{2}$ pounds sweetbreads
1 can mushrooms	1 pint cream
1 tablespoonful flour	2 tablespoonfuls butter
Salt and pepper

Cut the chicken, which has been previously cooked, into dice, cut the mushrooms into quarters, parboil the sweetbreads and cut like the chicken. Let the cream come to boiling point in double boiler; cream half the butter and the flour and stir into the cream; cook till it thickens and season. Butter an escallop dish, and put in chicken, sweetbreads, mushrooms and sauce in layers with sauce on top. Cover with crumbs, dot with the remaining tablespoonful of butter and bake one hour.

MRS. W. I. ADAMS.

Yellow Soup

1 quart stock	$\frac{1}{2}$ cup small sago (scant)
1 quart milk	4 eggs (yolks only)

Cook the sago in the stock till clear; scald the milk and add to the cooked sago and stock; season. Beat the yolks of the eggs in the tureen and carefully pour the boiling soup over them. Beat thoroughly and serve immediately. Any stock may be used, but half veal and half chicken makes a very delicate soup.

MRS. W. I. ADAMS.

Raspberry Meringue

Line a pie plate with good light pastry and bake in a quick oven. While still warm, spread thickly with red raspberries. Make a meringue of the whites of 4 eggs beaten stiff with $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of powdered sugar and when it is a froth stir lightly through it $\frac{1}{2}$ pint of
